Alice Cramer Service Set-- 80 Years in Kern, Tulare

May 9, 1970
PORTERVILLE — Services will be held Wednesday for Mrs. Alice Cramer, 92, who made her home in northeastern Kern and southeastern Tulare Counties for 80 years. Mrs. Cramer died Thursday night in Mesa, Ariz. Loyd Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

She was born in Linns Valley on Oct. 10, 1877, the daughter of the late Mrs. Belle and James Henry Berry, who came to Kern County from Placerville in 1874. Mr. Berry was a former Kern County superintendent of schools. His widow purchased more than 200 acres after his death at the present site of the Jack Ranch and started the resort in the early 1900s. She and her eldest son, the late Bert Berry, operated the business until their passing.

Mrs. Cramer received teaching credentials in the Kern County school system after attending the teachers normal school in Stockton. Until her marriage on Dec. 24, 1902, to Edmond Alonzo Cramer, she taught in the mountain schools. He was a gold miner at White River when they married. Later, he operated the old magnacite mines on the hills surrounding Porterville and they made their home at 594 Henrahan Street. When the magnacite mines closed, Cramer was superintendent of the black granite quarry in Success Valley. He died in 1940.

Mrs. Cramer was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Porterville.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Pat Cramer Geisler of Porterville and Mrs. Esther Meuleners of Tempe, Ariz.; a brother, Emmett R. Berry of Jack Ranch; six grandchildren, and two great-granddaughters. A son, Floyd R. Cramer, died in 1964 and another daughter, Alice, a twin to Mrs. Geisler, died in 1935.

Baby Pulled From Swim Pool Dies

May 22, 1970
A 19-month-old Ridgecrest baby died at the Ridgecrest Hospital last night approximately 20 minutes after he was pulled from a backyard swimming pool.

He was Howard Alford, son of Howard C. and Barbara Alford of 123 Sunset Street.

Ridgecrest Police said they were unable to get details from the parents.

However, officers said, they were told the baby and some other children were in the backyard playing when the infant apparently stumbled into the pool about 7:55 p.m. He was taken to the hospital where he expired at 8:15 p.m.

The incident is being investigated by police and the coroner's office.

Rites Held for Pioneer Porterville Attorney

May 30, 1970
PORTERVILLE — Funeral services for Guy Knupp Sr., 85, pioneer Porterville attorney, were held yesterday in Church of the Reconciliation in Forest Lawn at Glendale.

Mr. Knupp died in the Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles Wednesday. He was the father of attorney Guy Knupp Jr. of Porterville.

Mr. Knupp, a native of Visalia, was the son of the late Mrs. Ellen Cutler and Valentine Knupp. His father had come to Tulare County from Missouri in 1874. The family moved to Porterville in the early 1880s, when the elder Knupp accepted the position of manager of the Pioneer Land Company.

The deceased attended Porterville schools, graduating from Porterville High School in 1902. He studied law at Stanford University, receiving his degree in 1907. He returned to Porterville in 1912 to establish a practice. He was associated with the late George Murry, who died in 1918.

He practiced in Porterville until 1932, when he moved to Los Angeles to join the firm of Mitchell, Silverburg & Knupp. He retired about five years ago.

Mr. Knupp helped frame the City of Porterville charter, which he signed on Oct. 8, 1926. He served as chairman of the Porterville High School board of trustees during the time the old high school, deemed unsafe under the Field Act and demolished after the 1952 earthquakes, was constructed in the '20s. He was a past president of the Porterville Chamber of Commerce; a charter member of the Porterville Lions club; and a member of the Porterville Elks lodge. He was on the board of directors of Bank of America, after it evolved from a merger of the First National Bank of Porterville with the Bank of Italy. Porterville branch, B. of A., was formally designated on Nov. 3, 1930.

Mr. Knupp was married twice; first to the former Jessie Morrison, who preceded him in death. His second wife, the former Martha Johnson survives him.

In addition to his son and widow, survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Hoskot of Marina del Rey; a sister, Mrs. Myra Walbridge of Pasadena; and three grandchildren.

Worker Finds Youth's Body

About 1 p.m. yesterday an oilfield worker observed a pickup parked in a field adjacent to the aqueduct approximately 10 miles east of Taft, and investigation found the body of Russell Alan Money, 16, of 1815 Talisman Street, alongside the vehicle, sheriff's deputies said.

Deputies responding from the Taft Substation found a .22 caliber revolver near the victim and a note in the pickup indicating young Mooney took his own life, according to Deputy Coroner Don Wigginton.

Owner of Market Dies; Autopsy Set

Aug 29 1970
 California News Service

PORTERVILLE — Lester Hamm, 54, owner-operator of the Pine Flats Market, was pronounced dead on arrival at the Sierra View District Hospital Friday afternoon as the result of a gunshot wound on the left side of his face.

Hamm was discovered on a bed in his trailer house by an employe, Mrs. Paulieta Comer. A .38 caliber pistol was found near the body.

Chief deputy coroner Dick Stolte said a daughter told officers her father had been despondent over ill health. An autopsy is pending.

The body has been taken to Myers Chapel in Porterville.
