"ENGLAND--It is with heartfelt sorrow that we record the untimely death of a true-hearted Irishman, who may justly be considered the pioneer of ecclesiastical architecture in California - Thomas ENGLAND, who died in this city on the 23d inst. Mr. ENGLAND was a native of County Cork, Ireland, a county which has contributed so many illustrious names to the history of modern art, and though his career was necessarily a more restricted one, yet in it he showed himself no unworthy countryman of Macline and Barry. His family was one of the most respectable among the Catholics of Bandon, and is moreover distinguished for the talents of its members. His brother, Professor ENGLAND of Cork, was, until a late date, the only Catholic savant who made his way to a professorial chair in the Queens University, and the name of his uncle, Rt. Rev. Dr. ENGLAND, late Bishop of Charleston, is a synonym for all that is noble in the Episcopal character among American Catholics. The fine Arts were the favorite pursuit of Thomas ENGLAND from his boyhood, and he had made considerable progress in his artistic studies in Cork, when the Young Ireland agitation broke out in that city in 1848. Faithful to the spirit of his family, he flung himself heart and soul into the patriotic movement, and on its failure, he resolved to witness no longer the miseries which seemed hopeless of redress in his native land. In Philadelphia, whither he directed his course, he applied himself to the study of Architecture, in which his cultivated taste and art knowledge eminently fitted him for success. His residence in California dated back to 1851, thus making him one of the pioneers of his profession on the Pacific coast, and during the entire of his career, few have been so fortunate in winning the esteem and friendship of those with whom he came in contact. His works in this state are numerous, in almost every department of Architecture, but Gothic Art was his study of predilection, and to his talents and study are due almost all of Catholic Art that we possess in California. St Mary's Cathedral, the fine College now occupied by the Christian Brothers, Grass Valley Cathedral, Stockton Church, and St. Francis' Church in this City - the latter unquestionably the most beautiful Catholic Edifice on the coast - are a few of the buildings designed and executed by him; and considering the little knowledge of or relish for the true principles of ecclesiastical architecture that existed in this country when he commenced his career, and the difficulty of carrying them into practice in California a few years ago, the success which attended his efforts was something wonderful. In fact, Thomas ENGLAND may be said to have been born both an Artist and an Architect, and the knowledge and correct taste which in another is generally the result of long years of training, seemed to come to him by a special gift of nature, seconded by an intense application to study. Had the circumstances of his life been more favorable to the proper development of his talents, he certainly would have ranked among the first Architects of the present century, either in Europe or America; or, as an Artist, he might have attained a foremost place in the Art world; and from what he effected with the limited resources at his command, it is no hard task to conjecture what he could have done under conditions more favorable to Art culture than the early history of California afforded. In private life his character was peculiarly engaging. Unassuming in his manners, generous to a fault, gentle and considerate in his dealings with others, the soul of honor, and a warm and constant friend, it is rarely indeed that we meet with a disposition possessing so much to attract and so little to repel the love of those around its possessor, as did that of Thomas ENGLAND. The lingering disease which for upwards of two years slowly sapped his life away, he bore with cheerful resignation and when the dread summons of death arrived, his gentle spirit, fortified by the life-giving Sacraments of Holy Church, passed calmly away to another and, we trust, a better world. Peace to his soul is, and will be the heartfelt prayer of many a friend, for rarely indeed has the earth closed over a brighter intellect or a more generous heart than when it fell on the coffin of Thomas ENGLAND. Funeral Service: On Monday of this week a solemn Mortuary Mass was celebrated in St. Francis' Church for the repose of the soul of Thomas ENGLAND, its Architect, who died on the Saturday preceding. The church was thronged by the friends of the deceased gentleman, including most of the members of the Architectural profession in San Francisco, who had assembled to render the last tribute of respect to the memory of their late confrere. At the conclusion of the Mass, the Rev. Father King, of Oakland, addressed the congregation, and in a few brief but touching words recounted the services of his lamented friend to the cause of Catholicity in California, and aptly compared his labors in behalf of Catholic Art on the Pacific coast to those of his illustrious uncle, Bishop ENGLAND, in building up the spiritual edifice of the Church on the shores of the Atlantic. When the Reverend gentleman had finished his discourse, the funeral procession moved from the sacred edifice - Messrs. Farquharson, Turnbull, Williams, Mooser, Gosling and Clinch (who was his student), as representatives of the Architects of San Francisco, and Dr. O'Brien, (his friend), Hon. Jasper O'Farrell and Messrs. Lyons, Doyle, Callaghan, Black and John Sullivan, as private friends of the deceased, acting as pall bearers and walking a considerable portion of the way to the cemetery. The length of the funeral cortege simply testified to the esteem in which Mr. ENGLAND was held by his numerous acquaintances in San Francisco, and rarely indeed is it the lot of anyone to leave behind so many friends, and so few, or rather, no enemies, as he has done. At the Cemetery the remains of the deceased were received with the appropriate funeral ceremonies by the Rev. Father Aerden, assisted by Fathers King and Byrne, and deposited in the elegant little mortuary chapel which he had himself designed, there to remain until they should be deposited in their last resting place." "ESTILL--General James M. ESTILL died at his residence in San Francisco at eleven o'clock last evening. He was ailing for some three months, and was confined to his bed for about two weeks previous to his death. He was a prominent public man in California, a politician by nature, and always managed to make his politics pay. He emigrated in '49 or '50 from Missouri to this State, and became lessee for ten years of the State Prison, and, as such, was a source of great annoyance to the several State administrations that have held office from that time until this. We cannot now remember the mutations in his connection with the Penitentiary, so numerous have the changes been, but he was never wholly unconnected with it, save for a very short period, and it is safe to say, that in them all, he came out uppermost. No man has received one tenth the money from the State that General Estill did; and no man made greater profit on what he received. In 1852 he was elected State Senator from Napa and Solano - his family then resided in Benicia - for the term of two years, and he worked with a will to maintain the capital at Vallejo, where it then was. He was interested with McDOUGAL, GREEN, VALLEJO, FRISBEE, and others in the lands in that vicinity; and was about that time engaged in the slaughtering business, having bargained with Vallejo for all his wild cattle, which he killed on the premises and shipped to San Francisco. He made much money at that. In fact he was a modern Midas, for almost every thing he touched turned, under his magic hand, into gold. In 1857 he was elected to the Assembly from Marin county, although residing in San Francisco, and made himself conspicuous as the assumed leader of the what was known as the law and order forces. He was a shrewd politician but an unsafe legislator. Untiring in energy, with a will that would conquer if it could, a plasticity of character which could smile in defeat and an insinuating manner with which, when he found it for his benefit, he could make friends of his bitter foes; he was hard to overcome in any of his public undertakings. He quarreled in 1855 with Gov. BIGLER for voting one of his measures, a State prison bill, we believe, or an appropriations bill in which he was largely provided for, and in the campaign of that year, assumed the editorship of the State Tribune - Parker H. FRENCH's paper - then published in this city, and wrote some half dozen communications under the nom de plume of "Rube Roper." That was about the extent of his editorship, as both himself and French have informed us. He succeeded in electing Johnson having joined the Know Nothings for that purpose, and under his administration received one of the fattest State Prison contracts that he ever held. He was kind and patronizing to those he could control, and violently abusive of those who opposed him in any of his schemes. He was, however, a fearless man, and would as soon speak his thoughts before a man's face as behind his back, provided always that he might not thereby injure himself politically or pecuniarily. As a friend, he was acceptable; as a foe, to be feared. his disease was congestion of the bowels." Source: The Daily Bee (Sacramento, CA), 27 Apr 1859. Contact: Sean Ryan seanryan@houston.rr.com

"EVATT--Death of Mrs. Ed. EVATT--The telegraph brought the sad news to Salinas of the death of Mrs. Estella J. EVATT, wife of Edward EVATT, at her home in San Francisco Tuesday afternoon, in the 34th year of her age. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. & Mrs. William VANDERHURST of this city. Besides a husband, she leaves 5 little children, who will never again feel the velvet touch of her loving lips or the warm pressure of her gentle hand. With her spirit's flight vanished the sunshine of a happy home, leaving hearts bruised and broken. It is a withering blow to the loved ones left behind. On the 26th of September, 1883, with the world's brightest visions before her, she went out from her father's house a joyous, happy bride, taking with her the blessing of her parents, the love of brothers and sisters and the congratulations of friends. Last evening she was brought back to her old home, sleeping the peaceful sleep of death, all unconscious of the sorrow-laden hearts around her and the tears that fell like rain. The funeral services will take place at 2p.m. today in the United Presbyterian church, from the aisles of which the quiet sleeper will be borne to the "garden of slumbers." "FARNHAM--In this town, on Thursday morning, 13th inst., of intermittent fever, Thomas Jefferson FARNHAM, attorney at law, aged about 42 years. With much regret we record the death of Mr. FARNHAM, who was a native of the State of Maine, but had resided for some time in the state of New York, where he left a wife and three children. He emigrated to Oregon in the year 1837, thence to the Sandwich Islands, and from thence to California. He arrived here in 1840, at the time Messrs. GRAHAM and party, consisting of about thirty American residents, had been arrested and sent to Mexico for trial, charged with treason, by Alvarado, then Governor. Mr. FARNHAM, not satisfied with seeing his fellow man bound in fetters and sacrificed, without good cause, immediately repaired to Mexico, and by his interposition, and at the expense of his private fortune, succeeded in liberating the party who would otherwise have been condemned to die. In his profession he ranked among the best. He returned to New York in 1842, and after publishing a work descriptive of California, came back again in 1844, and up to the time of his death presented many evidences of his usefulness and integrity of character. "FELEZ--FINDS BURIAL IN THE POTTER'S FIELD -- ROCKLIN (Placer Co.), June 15 - At the Coroner's inquest held over the remains of the section hand killed by the overland flyer, below Rocklin, several days ago, it was learned that the deceased was a Spaniard named E. FELEZ. According to the witnesses, it seems that he started to cross from one side of the track to the other. When about the center, between the rails, he became bewildered at the nearness of the train, and before he could get out of the way, was struck by the engine and thrown sixty feet ahead, off to one side. He had only been working for the Railroad Company but a few days at the time of the accident. The unfortunate man had a sister living in San Francisco, and a cousin working for the Iron Mountain Copper Company, as Keswick, Shasta County, both of whom have been notified. As nothing had been heard from them in regard to the disposition of the remains, they were buried in the potter's field at Rocklin this morning." Source: Sacramento Evening Bee, 15 June 1905. "FERGUSON--Death of Hon W.I. FERGUSON -- The Sacramento 'Mercury' is in mourning for the death of Hon. W.I. FERGUSON, from the effect of his wound received in his late duel with Geo. Pen JOHNSTON. A telegram to the 'Mercury,' dated San Francisco, Sept. 14th; 9 p.m. says: The Hon. W.I. FERGUSON died this afternoon at 10 minutes before 5 o'clock. His physician decided, at 2 o'clock, that amputation would have to be performed. Mr. FERGUSON was fully aware of the fact. He died immediately after the leg was taken off. The wound is represented to have been a very severe one. His numerous friends in this city are plunged into mournfulness for his sudden and almost unexpected demise. FUNERAL -- The remains of the late Hon. W.I. FERGUSON were conveyed to the Sacramento boat Wednesday afternoon, says the S.F. 'Call,' by a procession numbering 150 gentlemen, among whom the Hon. D.C. BRODERICK, the late and present Representatives of San Francisco, in the Senate and Assembly, a delegation of the citizens of Sacramento and many of our prominent citizens. During the progress of the procession, the City Hall bell tolled a funeral knell in respect to the memory of one, who, during his official career, had ever been a warm advocate of the various organized Departments of the State. The remains were accompanied to Benicia by the following gentlemen: Hons. E.L. SULLIVAN, G.A. GRANT, S.B. BEEL, S. SOULE, S. JOHNSON, W. SHAW, D. MAHONEY, E.J. MOORE, and Gens. James A. McDOUGALL, J.M. ESTELL, Col. E.D. BAKER and Leonidas HASKELL, Esq. At Benicia, they were transferred to the pall-bearers from Sacramento. At the steamer, the wharf was crowded to excess, and as the mournful pageant proceeded its full length, the scene was impressive and solemn. The body was received by a Committee for Sacramento at Benicia, and conveyed to the Capital for burial. On the arrival of the boat at Sacramento, the remains were immediately taken to the Senate Chamber, where a guard of honor was placed over them. They were taken from there to the Rev. Mr. BENTON's church, Thursday morning, where the services were held." Source: Weekly Stockton Democrat, 19 Sept 1858. Transcribed by Dee.

"FERGUSON--DEAD -- It was announced by telegraph, on Tuesday evening last, that Hon. W.I. FERGUSON, who was shot recently in a duel with Geo. Pen. JOHSTON, of the S.F. 'National,' had died at San Francisco, from the effects of his wound. Since the fatal occurrence which has resulted in his death, Mr. FERGUSON had been lying in a very critical condition. The only hope of saving his life consisted in the amputation of the wounded limb, but the operation proved too much for his enfeebled system, and he expired a few minutes after it was performed." "FETTES--San Francisco, Feb. 3d. - several pistol shots in quick succession startled the neighborhood of 5th St., between Mission and Howard, at 10:10 o'clock this morning. They came from 119 5th St., a saloon kept by Mrs. Catherine FETTES, and were fired by her husband,

Andrew FETTES. He killed his wife and then fatally shot himself. The neighbors who heard the shots and ran into the saloon to investigate were appalled at the sight. The saloon is a small place in the east side of the street. Back of it is a kitchen and over it bed-rooms. At the foot of the steep narrow stairway leading to the upper floor lay the body of a man -- Andrew FETTES. His feet were on the stairs and his head on the landing below in a pool of blood. A faint gasping showed that the man was still alive. Upstairs in the front bedroom, on her back on the floor with her feet toward the door, lay the woman. She was dead. Blood poured freely from a wound on her head out upon the carpet and there were spatters of the same outside on the landing, on the door and on the floor of a room adjoining. Charles JAMES, who owns the property and has an office in the rear, heard shots and was one of the first to run around and into the place. He saw the sight as above described." "FINN--James J. FINN (1844/45-1925) - When the last chapter in the history of the Far West is finally written, the just chronicler will accord a preeminent place to the Irish. That history is indissolubly linked with the mining industry, and on that the adventurous Celt has left an indelible mark. The greatest mines, from the Rockies to the Sierras, have been discovered by Irishmen, and the greatest miners have been of the same race. DALY in Montana, MacKAY and FAIR in Nevada, KEARNS in Utah, Clark in Idaho, BARNES and WALSH in Colorado, are but a few of the names that suggest themselves in this connection. And, how many know that the great COMSTOCK Lode, named after a loudmouthed pretender really discovered by Peter O'RILEY and Patrick McLAUGHLIN?

One of that hardy race of pioneers who helped to develop the Far West, a miner who left the imprint of his personality on more than one of the great camps of his generation, passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital, Stockton, on Friday afternoon, May 8, when James FINN, weary of earthly wandering, set sail for the port of final rest. Mr. FINN was a true Irishman, born in County Kerry, and imbued with a love of everything a patriotic Irishman should love. He was a Gaelic scholar, who wrote and recited in Gaelic and sang the songs of his native land in its Native tongue. He was in Virginia City and Gold Hill in the days when the Big Bonanza of the Comstock was pouring forth its cornucopia of gold and silver. He was in Bodie when the lynching of "Frenchy" helped to fasten on the memory of the West the immortal phrase, "a bad man from Bodie". He was in Grass Valley and Nevada City when the famous ALLISON Ranch Mine was still numbered among the producers of gold. And yet he spent more than forty years of his life in San Francisco, only leaving here when his health began to fail, about eighteen months ago, to spend his last days at St. Joseph's Hospital in Stockton, where one of his daughters, Sister M. COLUMBA, O. S. D., is stationed. There he passed many pleasant hours in the company of James CANIFFE, another Gaelic veteran well known to readers of The Leader. In addition to Sister M. COLUMBA, he left another daughter, Sister Catherine FINN, of the Sisters of Charity, now at Yaochow Ki, China. Of his other children, James, Richard and Elizabeth FINN and Mrs. Paul C. HAMANN reside in San Francisco, and Mrs. Mark POOLE and Mrs Ray GRIER in Oakland. His beloved wife, Ellen, died here in the Fall of 1918. A daughter, Mrs. William GEDDES, also preceded him to the tomb. A Sister, Mrs. Thomas BALDWIN survives him here. A solemn requiem high Mass for the repose of his soul was sung at St. Joseph's Church, San Francisco, on Monday morning, May 11, beginning at 10 o'clock, with the Rev. Henry O' Flynn as celebrant, the Rev. John F. Dunn as deacon, the Rev. Francis Mulvihill as sub-deacon, and the Rev. Father McCarthy of St. Patrick's Seminary, Menlo Park, master of ceremonies. The Rev. Father Martin, O. P., was present in the sanctuary. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery."

His ancestors were amongst the earliest settlers of New England, the name appearing in the town records of Salem as early as 1650. They were among the builders of the Eastern commonwealths??? He received his literary education in the high school and academies of his native State and thereafter attended the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, where he graduated in 1849. Returning to Maine he practiced medicine until 1851, leaving in May of that year for California by way of Panama. Reaching San Francisco on July 7, 1851, he left that same evening for Sacramento, going thence to Volcano, Amador county??? he engaged in mining, remaining until the winter of 1852, meanwhile incidentally practicing his profession. On Christmas Day, 1852, he left San Francisco for the East, making the journey via Panama, to visit his friends and relatives. In the spring of 1853 he started again for California, this time coming by the overland route. At Terre Haute, Indiana, the most westerly point that could then be reached by rail, was formed the firm of FLINT, BIXBY & Company??? composed of Dr. FLINT, his brother Benjamin and Llewellyn BIXBY, a cousin. At Quincy, Illinois, a band of 2400 sheep was purchased, which were driven across the plains, and to which at Salt Lake were added 100 head of cattle. "FLINT--DEATH of WILSON FLINT -- Our exchanges bring us the sorrowful intelligence of the death of Hon. Wilson FLINT, of Sacramento -- a gentleman who has perhaps done more, by his pen and by his individual influence and example, to advocate the agricultural interests of California than any other citizen of the State. Mr. FLINT died at San Francisco on the 4th inst., of congestive chills. The 'Bulletin' of the same date furnished the following sketch of the deceased. We are necessarily compelled to abbreviate it somewhat: Wilson FLINT was born in New Hampshire in 1825. In 1842 he went from New York, where he had engaged in mercantile pursuits, to Galveston, Texas. While in Texas, his reflective and sagacious mind became strongly convinced of the moral and economical evil of slavery, and he left that State in 1849, as he told the writer of this, because he was unwilling to have his children grow up under its vicious influence, and did not feel at home under it himself. He believed, moreover; that the struggle for its extension and perpetuation would result in civil war. Mr. FLINT made his first home in our State at San Francisco, where he built the large warehouse which still stands at North Point, and was very prosperous until the overdoing of the warehouse business caused a sudden reaction that involved him in heavy losses. In 1856, he was elected to the State Senate from this county on the American or Know Nothings mainly because he thought their organization could be used to break down the pro-slavery Democratic influence which then ruled the State. During his term, Henry S. FOOTE, late Confederate Senator, who had just come to California on a political venture from Mississippi, was the Know Nothing candidate for United States Senator. Mr. FLINT, together with ASHLEY, of Monterey, (now Congressman from Nevada), and WAITE, of Nevada county, and perhaps 1 or 2 others, concluded that FOOTE was an unfit man, who, if elected, would serve the slavery aggressionists. He was the caucus nominee, however, and could only be defeated by preventing a joint convention. It was found that a single vote would suffice to prevent a convention, and Mr. FLINT cast that vote day after day. The service he did the State by defeating FOOTE can be estimated now when we reflect that had FOOTE been elected he would have been representing California during the exciting session of Congress which preceded the rebellion, and until the 2nd year of the war, and would doubtless have ranked himself among the opponents of LINCOLN's policy if he had not resigned with others to assist in organizing the rebel government. Mr. FLINT served 1 term in the State Senate, and retiring to private life lent the valuable aid of his influence and example to the support of the Republican party. Among the 1st to counsel the consolidation of the Union vote, he was to the last a supporter of the more advanced principles of that party. We regret that lack of space prevents us from paying a worthier tribute to his memory. The best compliment that could be paid him, now that he is gone, would be the collection and publication in book form of his agricultural writings. The act would at the same time be a service to the State." Source: Stockton Daily Independent, 7 Jan 1867. Transcribed by Dee Sardoc.

She was the widow of shipping executive James FLOOD, co-owner of the old FLOOD Brothers Steamship Line. Mr. FLOOD died in 1932. Mrs. FLOOD lived at 2601 Filbert Street. She was the daughter of Captain Gardner Gove TRASK of Edgecomb, Maine, one of the youngest masters of the clipper ships that sailed in the China trade. It was the custom of that era for ship???'s masters to take their wives with them on their voyages. It was on such a voyage that Mrs. Adele TRASK gave birth to a daughter on board the clipper ship Bohemia off the coast of Chile on Sept 12, 1876. Mrs. TRASK and her daughter were settled in San Francisco as were many other wives and children of clipper ship skippers. The little girl made several voyages to the Orient with her father on the Bohemia. Mrs. FLOOD was married in the early 1890???'s. She is survived by two sons, Dr. Randolph G. FLOOD, prominent San Francisco pediatrician, and Raymond FLOOD, agent for Trans-Marine Corporation of San Francisco and grandchildren Peter FLOOD, Paul FLOOD of San Francisco and Mrs. Ramona MACK of Los Angeles. "FOURGEAUD--Dr. Victor J. FOURGEAUD died yesterday. He had been a resident of California since 1847 and had always occupied a high place among his acquaintances for his mental and moral worth. In the Spring of 1847 he wrote the first long essay on resources and attractions in California, for a newspaper, and it was published in the California Star. This essay showed research and ability and has been admired by all who have the occasion to study the early history of the State. It appeared the first day of April, at which time not more than a few dozen men were mining for gold at Colima, and a few dozen specimens received at San Francisco were regarded with suspicion, most people suspecting the lumps were pieces of base metal. Dr. FOURGEAUD was a zealous pioneer; attended the meetings for his organization of the Society, was the sixth to sign the Constitution, and has been a valued member ever since. "FRANCISCO--DISASTROUS FIRE at SAN FRANCISCO -- Loss of Life -- On Thursday morning at 3 o'clock a fire broke out in San Francisco, on Commercial street between Kearney and Montgomery streets, said to have had its origin in the Barnum Restaurant. The buildings in the vicinity being mostly of wood, the flames spread rapidly, and destroyed some 7 or 8 houses, including the Diana Saloon, Collins & Tiffany's hat manufacturing establishment, Barnum's Restaurant, and several small buildings adjoining. An Italian, by name of FRANCISCO, was burned to death. He is said to have first discovered the fire and given the alarm, and is supposed to have been endeavoring to save property or extinguish the flames, when he was either suffocated, struck down, or fell and was killed. His body, perfectly charred, with the legs and arms burned off, was discovered among the coals and cinders in the rear portion of Barnum's Restaurant. A German servant girl occupying a room in the 3rd story of Barnum's Restaurant, was observed at her window, and was called to by the crowd to jump into a blanket which was held to receive her. She got out of the window, hung on the sill for a moment with her hands and then fell. In her descent she struck a sign, was thrown against a window, which broke, cutting her severely in the leg, and fell head foremost upon the blanket. A disturbance occurred between the members of 2 engine companies, resulting in a general fight. A young lad by name of HAUGHTON, returning from a ball, was just in time to save from Collins & Co.'s hat store, the wife & 2 children of Mr. COLLINS. Having placed them beyond the reach of danger, he immediately returned, and, knowing where there was a trunk containing valuable, endeavored to obtain it, but was prevented by firemen, who, fearful of his being suffocated, opposed his entrance." "FRANK--DEATH OF A PROMINENT REDWOOD CITY TANNER--Louis J. FRANK Succumbs to Injuries Resulting From a Fall in Boston--Redwood City, October 25--The Manager of the Frank Tanning Company yesterday received a telegram from Boston announcing the death of Louis J. FRANK, which took place at 1 o'clock. FRANK was the head of the local tannery and went East for men when the local employees went out on strike. He slipped on the street in Boston a few weeks ago, injuring his kneecap. A few days ago blood poisoning set in and this was the immediate cause of his death. FRANK was a native of California and aged 44 years. He was educated as a civil engineer, but only followed that profession a few years and entered the management of the Frank Tanning Company. He is a director and largest stockholder of the corporation. He took an active part in politics and was a Democrat. In 1884, he was elected to the Assembly, although the county went Republican. He was defeated two years ago in a three-cornered fight for Supervisor, the Independent candidate winning by sixty majority, with FRANK a close second. He was past president of the local parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West and took a deep interest in the welfare of the organization. Some thirteen years ago FRANK married Miss HYMAN, daughter of H. HYMAN of San Francisco, then a prominent young lady in Jewish circles. The wedding was a big social event. "FRANK--"HEAD OF REDWOOD TANNERY IS DEAD"--William FRANK Succumbs to Sickness Induced by Work During the Recent Strike--Redwood City, April 28 -- William FRANK, president of the Frank Tanning Company, died at his residence in Menlo Park early this morning. FRANK was taken down with a severe cold last week and steadily grew worse. Pneumonia finally set in and yesterday he began sinking and died shortly after midnight. During the recent strike at the tannery in this city, FRANK was obliged to do a good deal of extra work, and this, it is said, has caused his death. During the early part of the strike his brother, Louis, went east to secure men and met with an accident which resulted in his death. The men went back to work only a short time ago. Within a period of fifteen months three members of the FRANK family have died. There now survive one brother, Albert, and two sisters, Mrs. A.J. MARCUS and Mrs. I. TAUSSIG. William FRANK was the largest owner of the Frank Tanning Company and leaves an estate worth nearly a million dollars. He recently purchased a beautiful site at Menlo Park and built a handsome residence. A widow survives him. He was born at San Francisco 41 years ago and educated in this State. He was a prominent Mason. The funeral arrangements have not as yet been made." Source: San Francisco Chronicle, 29 Apr 1903, p.3, c.4.

"FRANK--"MANY FRIENDS PAY FINAL HONOR TO WILLIAM FRANK"--The Body of the Late Redwood City Tanner Laid to Rest--Redwood City, April 30 -- The funeral of the late William FRANK took place today from his residence at Menlo Park. The services were conducted with the Jewish rites. Rabbi VOORSANGER of San Francisco officiated and spoke feelingly of the deceased, eloquently eulogizing his manly traits. Some of the most prominent Jewish people of the State were present. The floral offerings were abundant and beautiful. The noon train leaving Menlo Park conveyed the remains to the Home of Peace Cemetery near Colma, where the body was laid beside his brothers and parents. A procession was formed at the headquarters of the Tanners' Union of this city by the employees of the Frank Tanning Company, of which the deceased was the head, and marched to the depot, where the funeral train was met. They all accompanied the remains to the cemetery. The pallbearers were P.P. CHAMBERLAIN, L.P. BEHRENS and John McBAIN, representing the Masonic order of this city; William BUNEMANN, representing the Royal Arcanum and Henry STEINBERGER, L. WORDER, A. FRAZER, R. MELDIC, T. and L. GENOCHIO and Thomas STOTT, representing the employees of the Frank Tanning Company. "FRESCHI--Maria Louisa FRESCHI alias Julia, an Italian courtesan, residing alone at No. 9 Pike street, was murdered in her room between 12 & 5 o'clock this morning, by some unknown person. She was found in a horrible state of mutilation -- had been beaten to death with a chair, stabbed 19 times in the head and neck, and a carpenter's chisel left sticking in her throat. Her skull had evidently been crushed by repeated blows from a boot heel. The motive was probably revenge, as money and jewelry in the room were untouched. She was quite wealthy. A young man named PINKHAM, who slept in the basement, has been arrested, but no particular suspicion is attached to him. He gave the alarm and saw the murderer as he left the premises."

"FRITZ--"THE DEAD CAPTAIN"--Imposing Obsequies of the Late Alfred J. FRITZ--A Vast Throng Views the Remains at the New Montgomery Street Armory Scenes at the Cemetary. The funeral of Captain A.J. FRITZ, the mysterious circumstances attending whose death have recently caused much surprise in this community, took place yesterday afternoon from the Armory at the corner of New Montgomery and Minua Streets, where the body has lain in military state since Saturday. The last watch was kept by members of the Gatling Battery, of which the deceased was commander. In the centre of the spacious drill hall, upon a dais, laid the metal casket containg the remains, which was covered with dense masses of immortelles, roses, and other floral offerings---the final tributes of mourning friends and relatives. Some of the designs were appropriate and beautiful. The Americus Club contributed and elegant cross, composed of white pinks, tuberose and pansies, the whole surmounted by A PURE WHITE DOVE IN FLOWERS. The Elite Club furnished a stand of white flowers, on which was the name of "A.J. FRITZ," the letters of which were in heliotrope and pansies, and ex-State Senator, John BOYSTON, a brother-in-law of the deceased, bestowed a floral pillow of white roses and white pinks, which contained the simple word "Rest," in violets. Bouquets in sufficient quantities to entirely obliterate from view the casket, were also donated by kind friends of the deceased. From nine o'clock until noon a steady stream of visitors filed past the remains, taking a last look at the face many of them knew so well. Long before the hour announced for the services, the streets in the immediate vicinity were thronged with spectators, and the capacity of the hall was inadequate to contain those who came to view the remains. Although it was announced that the procession would move at 2 o'clock p.m., sharp, the pressure of the crowd was so great that it was nearly 3 o'clock before THE ADVANCE COLUMN started. The time for moving of the procession having long since passed, and there being no diminution of the immense throng seeking admission, guards were stationed at the door and none were allowed to enter. The following were the pall-bearers: Major John MASON, Captain George BIGLEY, Captain Frank O'GRADY, Captain M. GREANY, Captain H.P. BUSH, Captain H.S. TEMPLETON, Captain Henry LEVY and Captain H.P. FILGATE for the military, Peter QUINN, M.C. CONROY, and James GANNON, from the Bohemian Council of the Chosen Friends, and Joseph JOURDAN, J.R. BRODIE, J.H. COLBERT and John J. DUN of the Americus Club, who at 3:30 assumed their duties, and the procession started in the following order: Union Gatling Band, thirty-seven pieces and drum corps; the San Francisco Jussars, Company B, First Battalion Cavalry, Captain C.C. KEENE; Company H, Second Regiment Infantry, Lieutenant William D. WATERS; the Oakland Guard, Captain Henry LEVY; Company H, first Regiment Infantry, Captain H.P. BUSH. The the hearse bearing the remains, the casket being enwrapped in the Stars and Stripes, and THE RIDERLESS HORSE, With empty saddle and boots reversed, following. Next came the commissioned officers for the National Guard of California, headed by Adjutant-General S.W. BACKUS, General John McCOMB, and Colonels WASON and SMEDBERG, the delegation Bohemian Council, Order of Chosen Friends, the Americus and Elite Clubs, and a long line of carriages containing friends of the deceased. It is estimated that nearly 2,000 persons were in the procession, and, with but one exception, on the occasion of the assassination of President Lincoln, it was the largest funeral cortege ever had in San Francisco. The line of march was from New Montgomery to Market, to Golden Gate Avenue, and thence direct to Calvary Cemetery. The streets along the line of march were crowded with spectators, and many who came simply to look on, joined the crowd and walked to the cemetery. A large crowd had gathered at the last resting place for the dead, and after the casket had been PLACED IN THE RECEIVING VAULT, the scene was of the most heartrending description. Owing to the immense crowd that blocked around the Armory many of the intimate friends had been unable to view the remains, and at the vault the lid was unscrewed and taken off to allow them to do so. The Venerable Mother of the deceased clasped her boy around the neck and pressed kiss after kiss upon his brow, and it was necessary to remove her by force. The widow was overwhelmed with grief, and with shrieks declared that she should be the last to kiss her boy. The Union Gatling Battery, commanded by Lieutenant J.G. NOONAN, formerly commanded by the deceased, acted as an escort of honor to the remains, and fired three volleys in front of the receiving vault.

"GALLEY--ASSASSINATION of L. GALLEY -- L. GALLEY, of the firm of Le Cacheux, Galley & Co., liquor merchants at 28 Commercial street, between Front and Davis streets, San Francisco, was stabbed says the ???Bulletin??? at 11 ?? a.m. Wednesday, and mortally wounded, by a French woman named Melantine GIRAULT. It appears that the woman, who is unmarried but enciente, went into the store this morning and she and GALLEY went into the private office to have a talk. They were alone for some time, when the persons about the establishment heard a cry in the office, and rushing in, found Mr. GALLEY lying upon the floor, having been stabbed in the left side with a bowie knife, by the woman. The knife passed through a part of the left lung and stomach, and is said to fatal beyond a doubt. The woman stood there with vengeance in her eye. Information was carried to the police and soon after the woman was arrested by Chief CURTIS, conducted to the station-house, and subsequently taken to the county jail, where she now lies. After her arrest, she still continues furious, and said that if GALLEY would not died, she would stab him again???. She is rather a fine looking woman and tolerably young. MORE of the CASE of ASSASSINATION -- The various reports circulated on the streets Wednesday evening and this morning of the death of Mons. L. GALLEY, who was stabbed Wednesday by Melantine GIRAULT, says the S.F. ???Bulletin??? of Thursday, are incorrect. It is hardly possible that he will recover, but he is still living and doing much better than could be expected. He is under the care of Dr. D???OLIVIERA, assisted by Drs. PIGNE-DUPUYTREN and CELLE; from the former of whom we learn that the knife passed into Mons. GALLEY???'s left side, between the 8th and 9th ribs; and being thrust in an oblique direction, penetrated the stomach, lung and diaphragm. The wound was immediately pronounced mortal, and it was supposed that the sufferer would live but a short time. It is now thought he may possibly recover, but it can hardly be expected. The woman, Melantine GIRAULT, as she writes her name, still remains in the County Jail, and appears to be in a calm condition of mind. She is 23 years of age, and comes from Paris, though she appears to be a native of Burgundy. It is said that she came to this county a few years ago in a ship doing business for the firm of LeCacheux, Galley & Co., and brought a letter of introduction and recommendation to Mons. GALLEY. When she arrived, it appears that Mons. GALLEY took her to..." [Transcriber's Note: rest cut off]. Source: Weekly Stockton Democrat, 16 May 1858. Transcribed by Dee.

"GERARDIN--Sunday night, about 9 o'clock, a French woman, named Marie GERARDIN, committed suicide in her rooms in a small alley leading off Broadway, near Dupont, by taking laudanum. About 6 years ago, the deceased was employed in the capacity of a waiter-girl in what was then known as the "Thunderbolt" saloon on Kearny street, near Pacific. A farmer from Los Angeles saw her in this saloon and offered to marry and give her a good home in the lower country. She favored his proposition, and in the course of a few weeks, managed to get from him the sum of $1,900, which was all the money he had. When his money was gone, she gave him the cold shoulder, and refused to marry him. One night the farmer visited her in the saloon, sat down beside her and told her he had come for a final answer on the question of marriage. She flatly refused him, when he drew a Colt's 5-shooter and fired at her, the ball entered her head in front of and a little above the right ear. The man then turned the weapon to his own head, and before any one could prevent him, fired it, the ball entering at the back of the right ear, penetrating the brain, and causing death in a few minutes. The woman did not die, but when she recovered, her hearing was impaired. Ever since that occurrence she was known as "Deaf Mary." On several occasions she has attempted to take her life, but was unsuccessful until Sunday night." Source: Stockton Daily Independent, 4 May 1871. Transcribed by Dee.

"GIBSON--FORMER CEDARVILLE PHYSICIAN PASSES AT ALTURAS FRIDAY NITE--Dr. A. GIBSON, pioneer physician of Alturas and prominent in the development of Modoc County for the past forty years, passed away suddenly at 8:35 last evening (Friday) following only five or six minutes illness. The doctor, who had been in his usual health, had an appointment with a patient in his office, when he became ill. Dr. W. J. VERLING of the Home Drug Store, was notified and rushed to his aid. Dr. P. W. MCKENNEY, who was associated with Dr. GIBSON in business, was hastily summoned from the 20-30 dinner in progress at the Niles and with the assistance of Dr. VERLING carried him into his office to the couch, where he expired in a very few seconds. The doctor was sitting on the steps at the head of the stairway, leading into the office. He was gasping for breath and told those who came to aid him that he was near the end and was going soon. The doctors' death is a shock to the entire community as he was perhaps the most widely known of any residents to all of Modoc County. He came to Alturas in 1887 direct from College and was associated with his brother, Dr. Sam GIBSON. At first, he settled in Surprise Valley where he met his wife, Miss Lillie STEVENS. Later they moved to Alturas, where Dr. and Mrs. GIBSON and their daughter, Pearl have since resided. A nephew, Thomas R. GIBSON, accompanied by M. E. DAY arrived here from Reno this morning to assist Mrs.

GIBSON with the funeral arrangements. Mrs. Thomas GIBSON went to San Francisco to accompany Mrs. Pearl SEPULVEDA to Alturas to attend the funeral. The remains were shipped to Reno last Sunday, accompanied by his wife and daughter and a number of friends and business associates. The burial was held at that place Monday. Dr. GIBSON was aged 54 years and was one of the wealthiest men of Alturas." Source: Surprise Valley Record-Alturas Plaindealer (Cedarville, Modoc Co., Cal), 14 June 1932. "GILLIS--San Francisco, February 2, 1900 - Major GILLIS, the last of the old guard of lobbyists, died on Wednesday at his home, 2218 Jackson Street in this city. Major GILLIS was the most trusted lieutenant of the late W.W. STOW, and when the latter was making his last campaign to elect Stanford to the Senate, GILLIS handled most of the money. Major GILLIS came to California in 1849 and from that time on, he never missed a session of the Legislature until present. While STOW ruled the lobby GILLIS had important work, but in later years, although he was still on the railroad payroll, matters of less consequence were entrusted on him. On his arrival in California, Major GILLIS settled in Sacramento, where he lived until the early 1860's, when he went to Virginia City. In 1871 he returned to California and became a stockbroker in this city. In 1881, W.W. STOW engaged him as his clerk and agent, although he still kept up his business as a stockbroker. Three years ago, he was taken with a bad case of pneumonia, and he had been failing ever since. He was a veteran of the Mexican War and a native of Washington, D.C. "GLOCKER--Albert Edward GLOCKER--Resident of Orinda Albert Edward GLOCKER passed away peacefully December 5, 2008 in Walnut Creek, California. He was born September 2, 1919 to Rudy and Ellen GLOCKER in San Francisco. He graduated from Polytechnic High School in 1937. Al entered World War II in 1945 with the U.S. Army Signal Corp., Technical 3rd Grade, 4026th Signal Photographic Battalion. He served in the Asiatic Pacific Theater as a Motion Picture Cameraman. He was proud of not only the photos and movies he took, but also the men he worked closely with in Combat Photo Unit 10 and many meetings with famous and not-so-famous people. It was in San Francisco, while working for Hirsch and Kaye Supply, that Al met his future wife, Janet TAUBE. They married in 1950. He worked for Coffin Reddington in pharmaceutical sales and later became the Northern California Regional Vice President of Sales at Bergen Brunswig Drug Company. In 1971, he purchased Diablo Rapid Print in Lafayette which he operated with his wife and daughters until his retirement in 1993. Family and friends knew of his talent and creative spirit that lead him to build just about anything. He loved to tinker in his garage and work in his darkroom. Al will be fondly remembered as a generous man with a big heart, a keen sense of humor and wit. He will be dearly missed. He was a member of the Orinda Masonic Lodge, Lafayette Rotary, Lafayette Kiwanis, Sons in Retirement and served on the board of Lake Mont Pines HOA. Al is survived by his daughters Carol SAYLOR (Steve) of Corvallis, Montana, Lynn Ellen GLOCKER of Orinda; grandchildren W. Jas CONDLEY of Santa Cruz and Anna SAYLOR of Lolo, Montana. "GODDARD--HUSBAND'S DISGRACE BROKE WIFE'S HEART. Mrs. B. G. GODDARD Succumbs to Grief and Weakness, Leaving Three Young Children Worse Than Orphans. OAKLAND, December 14. -- After pleading in vain from her deathbed with her prisoner husband to cease drinking, Mrs. B. G. GODDARD gave up the struggle to-day. With her three little babes, her sister and her brother-in-law gathered about the bed, the woman died of a broken heart. But a few hours before the wife's death the husband was brought from his cell in the jail to his wife's home at 1963 Webster street. GODDARD was overcome and on bended knees swore in the presence of his dying wife never begin to touch liquor, but in thirty minutes he was pleading with his keeper as they passed a saloon to allow him a last drink. A highly respected citizen, GODDARD sometime ago forged the name of W. M. WATSON, his employer, to a check for $45. He was held to answer before the Superior Court upon a charge of forgery by Police Judge Mortimer SMITH. The disgrace, with all that had gone before, was too much for the wife. Mrs. GODDARD was thirty-five years of age and was born in San Francisco. She was well educated and used to comfortable circumstances. Her parents are both dead. The only surviving member of her own family is her sister, Mrs. RINLEY. To-night Mrs. RINLEY said: "The death of my sister is extremely pathetic, and I don't know what we will do with the little ones. My sister grieved over her husband's trouble and I fear it caused her death. The tots do not know that their mother is dead yet, and I cannot bear to tell them. There is little money in the house; we have little, and much has been spent on Mr. GODDARD's defense. I think this will break his heart." When informed of his wife's death by the prison keeper at the County Jail to-night GODDARD broke down and cried like a child." Source: San Francisco Examiner, 15 December 1902, p. 9. September 28th, while in attendance on a reception given to Hon. W. H. SEWARD. The Chronicle of the 30th ult. Has the following: While Mr. SEWARD was sitting down, Senor Jose GODOY, the Mexican Consul, approached him and entered into conversation. He had spoken probably a minute, when he was suddenly observed to straighten up and fall backward on the floor.-Every one thought it was a fainting fit and called out to give him air.-A medical man, who was present stepped forward and, after examining Mr. GODOY, who was breathing heavily and in short gasps ordered his removal to another room. He was at once carried into another apartment, where he expired in a few minutes in spite of all that medical aid could do. A messenger was dispatched for Mrs. GODOY, who arrived just in time to find her husband dead. Her agony and anguish were distressing in the extreme, and it was with difficulty that she could be removed from the scene. Mayor McCOPPIN and some kind friends surrounded her and did all in their power to comfort the unfortunate lady." Source: San Luis Obispo Pioneer, 5 Oct 1869, Vol. 2 # 39. "GOLDSTEIN--N. GOLDSTEIN PIONEER OF COUNTY, DIES. Was perhaps oldest surviving merchant in Butte County. Death Unexpected and casts gloom over Oroville friends. Nathan GOLDSTEIN, perhaps the oldest surviving merchant in the country, one of its foremost citizens and property owners and a director since 1892 of the First National Bank of this city, suddenly passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sidney SHIREK at San Anselmo, Marin county last night, according to a message received here this morning. Mrs. GOLDSTEIN and the one daughter were present at the bedside when the end came. Death Unexpected. Yesterday Henry W. GOLDSTEIN received a letter from his mother telling him that his father was ill, but that the usual remedies were being used and this complete recovery was expected. He was dumbfounded this morning when he received a telegram announcing the demise. Nathan GOLDSTEIN was a resident of Oroville since 1856, when he opened a store in this city and since that time he has been actively identified with the city's business. He amassed a fortune and at the time of death was a heavy owner of property in Butte county and in San Francisco. The first interests of the land of his choice have always been his and he was prominently identified with the growth of the county. He enjoyed a wide acquaintance in the county and the news of his sudden death received here this morning cast a gloom over those with whom he was acquainted. Nathan GOLDSTEIN was a native of Kempen, Germany where he was born seventy-eight years ago. In 1851 he came to this country and reached New York in November of that year. In the following year he came to San Francisco. For several years he travelled through Butte, Sierra and Plumas counties selling merchandise. Site of first store, In March, 1856, GOLDSTEIN opened up a store on the site now occupied by the Union Hotel Annex. Since that time he has continued in business in this city. The family resided in this city until about two years ago at the handsome home opposite the courthouse at the corner of Bird and Lincoln streets. At that time the family removed to San Francisco, where they have since made their home. Deceased is survived by his widow and seven children, all of whom are grown. The children are Mrs. J.W. RAPHAELE, Mrs. R.B. MOORE, Mrs. Lulu DAVIS, H.W. GOLDSTEIN, Mrs. Sidney SHIREK, Alfred E. GOLDSTEIN, and Mrs. Murray KATZ, all of San Francisco. Alfred GOLDSTEIN, who has been in charge of the local store, left on the Western Pacific train this forenoon for San Anselmo. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed."

"GORDON--George F. GORDON, one of the older attorneys of the San Francisco bar, died yesterday at his home, Oak and Ashbury Streets, aged 51 years. His wife, the only surviving member of his family, died last Monday. Lately Mr. GORDON has been in partnership with E.B. YOUNG. "GORDON--The S.F. Herald has the following in relation to the murder of Geo. GORDON a mulatto, at San Francisco, on the 29th inst. It was charged by the wife and sister-in-law of GORDON, who keeps an extensive millinery establishment on the corner of Minna and Second streets, that SCHELL came to their place on Monday afternoon, and while they were in the working room back of the salesroom, leaned over the counter and took $11 from the drawer. They (as they assert) pursued him, and called for a policeman, but SCHELL made his escape at the time. The same evening GORDON and his wife met SCHELL in the street and charged him with the theft, which he denied. As this part of the subject has not been investigated SCHELL's guilt of the larceny may be doubled. He informed some friends of the accusation which had been made against him, and it is probable that they advised him to take the course which he afterwards did. Yesterday morning, about 11 o'clock, he went to GORDON's barber shop, (it appears that he had previously lurked around his house for an hour or two.) and said to him; "George that affair last night, was not correct." Some further words passed between them, when SCHELL struck GORDON over the head with his cane, breaking the cane. They then clinched, when Ralph DORR, who with E.A. WILLETT had accompanied SCHNELL to the shop, attempted to separate them. He was unsuccessful, but the employees of the shop succeeded. As soon as they were separated SCHELL drew a Derringer pistol, which he had borrowed from Levi SOLOMON, and fired, the ball passing through GORDON's breast. GORDON ran to the street, where he fell, and SCHELL followed and beat him over the head with the pistol. He was soon after arrested." Source: San Mateo County Gazette (Redwood City, CA), 2 Nov, 1861, Vol. 3 No. 31. Transcribed by jch.

"GORDON--TO BE INTERRED in SAN FRANCISCO -- The body of John GORDON, deceased, was sent to San Francisco yesterday for interment. Mr. GORDON had borrowed a horse of Mr. John DILLON to ride several miles in the country on Wednesday. The same evening the horse was found, about 5 miles from the city, by a vaquero, the saddle being under the animal's belly. Notice was given to Mr. C. McCLOUD of this fact, who shortly afterwards, while riding home, discovered a body lying upon its back on the ground, his attention being attracted to it by a steer, which was scenting it. An inquest being held on the body, it was found to be that of John GORDON, and the horse mentioned, was the one he had borrowed from Mr. DILLON. The horse had evidently ran away, throwing his rider, whose foot hung in the stirrup, and was dragged until the animal became exhausted. From the marks on the ground the horse started a 2nd time, and after dragging the body about 10 feet, the foot was disengaged; but too late, as life must have been extinct. The deceased's coat was found a distance off, his vest was drawn to the back of his neck, and his shirt drawn over his head. He was badly bruised upon his back, breast, and arms, but death evidently had been occasioned by the horse kicking him on the forehead, the hoof striking over each eye of the unfortunate man with force sufficient to occasion death. Near him was a $2.50 piece, and several half dollars were upon the ground, and 1 half dollar lying upon his person. The singular distribution of money was somewhat puzzling. The deceased was a married man and his wife telegraphed from San Francisco that his body be sent there for interment. The horse he rode was a vicious one; having ran away with Mr. DILLON a short time since, frightening another horse which Mr. DILLON's son was riding at the time, which also ran away and occasioned the child's death. GORDON was aware of the disposition of the horse, but urged Mr. DILLON to allow him to use it after being at first refused." "GORDON--The case of Willis CORSE, indicted for the murder of McCreary GORDON at the Sazerac Saloon, San Francisco, on the 5th July, has been concluded by a verdict of Not Guilty.

After the verdict of the jury, Judge HAGER remarked: You may consider yourself very fortunate in the verdict of the jury. "GOUHL--A SINGULAR DEATH -- The Nevada 'Transcript' of May 7th relates the following singular occurrence: Several weeks ago we published an item of the death of H.C. SPIRELING, from paralysis. He was taken with a fit while at work, and never spoke afterward. He was conveyed by his partner to San Francisco for treatment, and died shortly after reading that place. Louis GOUHL, his partner, went with him to the Bay and remained with him until his death. GOUHL returned home and went to work, and on last Wednesday he was stricken down in the same manner as SPIRELING; and remained insensible up to Saturday night, when he expired. Both of these men were upright and industrious, and highly respected in the community. They were natives of Prussia and single men. Both men have resided on Deer Creek for several years, and were not known to be subject to paralytic fits. It is a singular coincidence that 2 such men, living in the same house, should die in precisely the same way, within so short a time." Source: Stockton Daily Independent, 10 May 1867. "GRAY--A Prominent Man Dead. Matthias GRAY, a well known music dealer of San Francisco, died in that city at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning last. One week ago Mr. GRAY was stricken with paralysis of the brain, which was followed by congestion of the lungs and heart. He gradually sank and Wednesday morning brought the termination which the attending physician foresaw as inevitable from the first. He leaves a widow and a son 11 years old. He was a prominent member and director of the British Benevolent Society and a member also of the Bohemian Club. * * * Passed Away. Matthias GRAY, the well known and very popular music dealer of San Francisco, who passed from earth a few days ago was one of the most noble and generous men on the Pacific Coast. His many charities were mostly of a private nature, and bestowed in such a manner that the receiver hardly knew whom to thank. A few years ago a lady who was in trouble concluded to get up a concert at Platts hall, San Francisco. The lady was not personally acquainted with Mr. GRAY; but that generous man had heard of her misfortune and distress, and when she called at his store to ask what he would charge for the use of a Steinway piano for the occasion, Mr. GRAY very politely informed her that she could have the use of the piano free of charge. During the brief conversation he said: Madam, I am in deep sympathy with you in your trouble and I wish to assist you; accept this little gift [twenty dollars], and turning to the head clerk he introduced the heart-sorrowing lady and said, I authorize you to give Mrs. five dollars every week while she is obliged to remain in the city. The lady said, I will not impose on your generosity by calling. But the lady through a friend received five dollars each of the four weeks she remained in the city. Such men as Matthias GRAY don't die they merely pass from this to a better land." Source: San Joaquin Valley Argus (Merced, CA), 2 Apr 1887. "GREEN--Died in Hollister, Jan. 1, John W. GREEN, a native of New York, aged 81 years.

[While sitting in an easy chair, at his home 4 miles SE of Hollister, John W. GREEN died suddenly last Sunday. He was apparently in the best of health within a few hours of his death. He had taken New Year's dinner with his daughter, and did not complain of feeling ill until shortly before leaving for home. When he arrived at his residence he was taken with a severe chill. Mrs. GREEN assisted him to his favorite chair, while she busied herself getting things ready to administer to his comfort. When she returned she found the old gentleman asleep in death. John W. GREEN was one of San Benito county's oldest residents. For several years he successfully engaged in the sheep business in Priest valley. About 30 years ago he moved to Hollister, purchasing the property SE of town. He was a man of strong character, exceedingly energetic and of a saving disposition. He was born in New York, May 24, 1824. He leaves a widow and 4 daughters -- Mrs. D. MONROE of San Francisco; Mrs. J. REYNOLDS of Monterey; Mrs. Jacob LUTHER of Santa Clara and Mrs. W.K. GOFF of this place.] [By a deed, dated Sept. 1903, the late John W. GREEN conveyed the ranch property located near the county hospital to his wife, Grace E. GREEN.] [from 27 Jan issue -- Jacob LUTHER has filed a petition for letters of administration on the estate of the late John W. GREEN. The will is dated June 10, 1899 and bequeaths 60ac to his wife, Grace E. GREEN, to hold and enjoy as long as she remains my widow and unmarried, and in case she should not marry during her life, then during her natural life. One-fourth of the remainder of the estate is given to each of his 4 daughters: Mrs. Sarah MONROE; Mrs. H.A. REYNOLDS; Mrs. F.E. LUTHER and Mrs. Ella GOFF. Jacob LUTHER is named executor without bonds, but in a codicil dated Nov. 15, 1899, Grace E. GREEN and Jacob LUTHER are jointly named as executors.] Source: The Free Lance (Hollister, San Benito Co), 6 Jan 1905. "GRINNELL--BY STATE TELEGRAPH, San Francisco, Nov. 20 -- Information was received by the police this morning that a young man about 24 years of age committed suicide by taking poison. He was a very fair-haired young man named Henry Wells GRINNELL, and gave out that he was a nephew of Moses GRINNELL, the well-known ship-owner of New York. He came to this city from China about 2 months ago and having lived very fast during the short time he was here, soon found himself considerably in debt. He tried to leave for the East by the steamer before last, but was stopped, and it is presumed that the pressure of his circumstances caused him to take his life. "HAIGHT--"Death of an Old Citizen. The numerous friends of Henry HAIGHT will be pained to learn of his sudden demise. He died at his residence in this city, yesterday. He was a brother of the late Hon. Fletcher M. HAIGHT, Judge of the Southern District Court of California, and uncle of Hon. H. H. HAIGHT, the present Governor of this State. He was born in Allegany County, New York, in 1820. When a young man he was a teller in the Bank of Monroe and secured hosts of friends by his affability, business capacity and unswerving integrity. He removed to St. Louis in 1847 and became connected with the banking house of PAGE & BACON. In June 1850 he came to San Francisco with David CHAMBERS and F. W. PAGE to establish the house of PAGE, BACON & Co., those three being resident partners, and D. D. PAGE and H. D. BACON at St. Louis. The business of the firm was chiefly managed by Mr. HAIGHT and its California branch enjoyed several years of great prosperity; but the firm failed in 1855 owing to liabilities incurred by the house of Page & Bacon in St. Louis. For some years past Mr. HAIGHT has filled the office of Notary Public in this city, and been highly esteemed in all the social and business relations of life by every member of this community, acquainted with him. Of a noble and generous nature, a kind husband and father, he has gone down to the tomb leaving a widow, three fatherless children and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss."

"HAMILTON--THE DEATH OF A LEADING CITIZEN--COL. E.R. HAMILTON IN HIS 73D YEAR PASSES AWAY. A Man Greatly Respected - Was of High Character and Public Spirit. Colonel E.R. HAMILTON, one of the best known and one of the most esteemed citizens of Sacramento, died at his residence, 1221 L street, early yesterday morning, in the seventy-third year of his age. Colonel HAMILTON as a public and business man was closely identified with the interests of the city since the year 1857, and socially and hospitably he was noted for his breadth and liberality. He was born in Meadville, Pennsylvania, where his childhood and early growth were passed. In 1848 at the age of 16 he went to Pittsburg, and in four years apprenticeship learned the trade of steamboat coppersmith. He followed that vocation until April 1853, when he crossed the plains to California, reaching Sacramento in September of that year, without means but with the resolution and courage characteristic of his career. His first work here was as a shovel man

for a contractor on the banks of Lake Sutter for a meager wage and with such poor provision for comfort that he had not even blankets and had to sleep upon a bed of loose straw. In a fortnight, however, he secured a position as a porter in the store of E. AYRES, where he remained until January, 1854, when he secured employment at his trade in San Francisco and continued at it until late in 1855, when in partnership with J.L. SMITH, he set up in the stove and ironware trade at Placerville. In 1857 he sold out and came to Sacramento, forming a partnership with Mr. PURDIN in the stove business which was continued until 1866, when he was elected City Assessor as the nominee of the Republican party, of which political organization he was an ardent promoter. In 1867 his business capacity had commanded such attention that he was called to the Cashiership of the Sacramento Savings Bank, a position he held without interruption until less than two years ago, when he voluntarily relinquished it, but remained a director of the bank to his death. On the breaking out of the Civil War Colonel HAMILTON organized a company of sharp shooters and proffered its services to the government, but it was not called to active duty. Somewhat later he was chosen Colonel of the Fourth Infantry Regiment of the National Guard of California and in that capacity served the State well and won the confidence and high regard of all the men of his command. Colonel HAMILTON was twice married, and by his first wife had two children, a son, E.G. HAMILTON, in business at National City, San Diego County, and a daughter, Mrs. C.K. HOLIDAY, of Topeka, Kansas. His second wife, one of the leading public spirited women of the city, survives him. Colonel HAMILTON had been sick about five months, but was in that time often seen riding upon the streets. The immediate cause of his death was atheroma of the blood vessels induced by the processes of old age. Colonel HAMILTON was a man of high character, of unblemished integrity, public spirit and business capacity of notable breadth and vigor. He was esteemed one of the most substantial and influential citizens of Sacramento, devoted to its best interests and was by his love of social communion and his large hospitality and generous spirit, popularly and familiarly known to the people of the city. His friends he numbered by hundreds, and his death is deplored by them and people generally, with sincerity of mourning that is manifest only when a universally respected, a high minded and upright citizen passes away. The funeral of the deceased will take place this afternoon at the late residence and will be private. The remains will be taken to San Francisco for cremation." "HAMILTON--DEATH of an OLD MANAGER -- Mr. HAMILTON, Sr., whose sudden death was the cause of his son and daughter leaving this city last evening, thereby causing a temporary cessation in the operations of the Lockhart Dramatic Company, was one of the oldest members of the dramatic profession on this coast. He came to California in 1852 and first assumed the management of the Jenny Lind Theater in San Francisco. Previously he had been the manager of a company, who converting a flatboat into a theater, gave performances at the various river towns on the Mississippi. We believe at that period, the celebrated CHAPMAN family were associated in the same enterprise. Afterwards, with this family, he traveled in the palmy days of gold hunting through the mining towns of this State. Mr. HAMILTON, Sr., was one of the most respected and valued men in his business. Relative to the responsibilities of theatrical management, his name was a synonym for honesty. He leaves a wife and 3 children. He has played his part on this troublesome stage of earth and has made his entrance on one where the piece "works mo[illeg] smoothly." "HAMILTON--A CARD -- The following card from Miss Annie LOCKHART explains itself: "Stockton, Dec. 3, 1868. Editors, 'Independent:' In consequence of the news received today by telegram of the death of Mr. HAMILTON, Senior, father of Mr. and Miss HAMILTON, members of my company, I beg to state through your columns that I shall be unable to give the performances requested on Friday and Saturday next. The sudden affliction above mentioned necessitates the immediate departure of the lady and gentleman so nearly concerned for San Francisco. I intend as soon as possible to reorganize the company, and returning, give another series of entertainments in this city. Every encouragement to do so has been given by the liberal patronage and good will evinced by the public of Stockton; and to that public, on behalf of the company and myself, I beg to return our sincere thanks for the hearty manner in which they have appreciated our efforts to please. I also have to acknowledge with gratitude the many kind notices the press has given us. The players are always benefitted when the great intellectual lever is used for their good. Trusting that our future venture in this place may be worthy the recognition our past has received, I am, gentlemen, your obedient servant, Annie LOCKHART." "HAMILTON--Death of an Editor - The Boston Courier says that William C. HAMILTON, Esq., one of the editors of the San Francisco Herald, but better known here for several years an associate editor of the New York Herald, died at Acapulco, on his passage out, in the Golden Gate. He had been visiting New York and New England, on business connected with his California establishment, and started on his return on the 20th of January last. After leaving Panama, he was attacked by yellow fever, and the disease speedily proved fatal. He was buried near Acapulco, with a head and foot stone to mark his grave. Mr. HAMILTON was 37 years of age, and leaves a wife and three children in Brooklyn. He was generally esteemed by his acquaintances, and it will gratify them to know that his remains were interred with all proper respect by his fellow passengers." "HANLEY--DEATH of an OLD MAN in the Station House -- An old man by name of Thomas HANLEY was found lying in the streets of San Francisco on Saturday night and taken to the Station House for safe keeping. The following morning he was found dead. He had been living with his son, who is said to be in affluent circumstances, but being accustomed to drink the son's wife ordered him from the house. The old man left the house, and for 2 nights previously to his removal to the station-house, he had slept exposed in the streets. He was a man apparently over 70 years of age. The following is the verdict of the Coroner's jury: We, the undersigned Jurors, convened to inquire into the cause of death of Thomas HANLEY, who died in the station house on the 12th June, 1859, do find that the deceased was from Limerick, Ireland, aged 75 years; and we further find that the cause of his death was from exposure, intemperance and debility. We feel it our duty to censure the conduct of his son, Thomas HANLEY, and that son's wife, for their cruelty, in refusing shelter to the deceased, compelling him to roam about the streets without shelter or means of subsistence." "HAPPERSETT--A GOOD MAN GONE -- Rev. R. HAPPERSETT, D.D., for several years pastor of the Presbyterian Church in this city, died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He was seized with an attack of bilious fever a week ago, which terminated in typhoid fever and resulted fatally in defiance of all that medical skill could do to arrest its career. The sudden and unexpected decease of the reverend gentleman cast a cloud of sorrow and sadness over the minds of a large number of friends, who prized him highly, not only as a minister, but as one of those genial gentlemen who made good impressions on the minds of the people wherever he went and who, at all times, showed that practical consistency of life which ever marks the course and career of a truly honest man. He was a native of Chester county, Pennsylvania, and was 52 years of age. He was a graduate of Princeton College, New Jersey, and for a number of years was Secretary of the Board of Publication; likewise of the Board of Domestic Missions of the Presbyterian Church. At the time of his death he was Secretary and Treasurer of the State Insane Asylum, and was largely interested in real estate in San Joaquin county. Immediately after his decease the sad intelligence was telegraphed to San Francisco, likewise stating that arrangements were made to have the funeral services take place at the Presbyterian Church this (Wednesday) evening. In return, at 2 o'clock p.m., T.R. ANTHONY received the following dispatch: "San Francisco, Oct. 2 -- To T.R. ANTHONY: Sad news. Dr. WADSWORTH and Dr. HAPPERSETT's most intimate friends, earnestly desire that the funeral should be here, and that the remains should be placed in a vault, awaiting order of friends East. Bring remains down, if you concur, on this evening's boat." In accordance with this, services will be held at the Presbyterian Church precisely at 1 o'clock so that they may be concluded previous to the departure of the boat, when the remains of the deceased will be taken to San Francisco. Rev. Mr. DEAL will conduct services of the church and all the clergy of the city and vicinity are invited to attend. Thus in obedience to the despotic decrees of the Angel of Death, another good man fades from earthly vision; only, however, in spirit, to awake in a world of cloudless and eternal day." "HARRISON--6 MEN KILLED on BOARD the MOSES TAYLOR -- The steamer Moses Taylor, of the Webb line, arrived from Australia and New Zealand yesterday. The 'Bulletin' of last evening contains the following: It will be remembered that the vessel left San Francisco on the 24th of May, after having been handsomely christened by a banquet of prominent business men, and inspected by the general public. When about 4 hours' sail from the Heads, during the 1st Assistant Engineer's watch, the flue of the starboard boiler collapsed. The hot water and steam escaping, rushed down upon the doomed men below, killing 4 and fatally scalding the 1st Assistant Engineer and a water tender; the 2 latter survived but a few hours, although they received every attention from Surgeon WOODBIDGE. Annexed are the names of the victims: Thomas HARRISON, 1st Assistant Engineer, age 32; Nicholas PENDERGAST, fireman, age 28; H. MOONEY, fireman, age 27; Paul NICOLSON, coal passer, age 29; Wm. YOUNG, coal passer, age 32; Oliver HAYS, water tender, age 28." "HART--SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH, July 7 - A terrible tragedy occurred at the St. Francis Hotel, corner of Clay and Dupont streets, about 3 o'clock this afternoon. Billy MULLIGAN, who was expatriated by the Vigilance Committee in 1856, has been laboring under an attack of delirium tremens since yesterday. Today he threatened the lives of several persons and when the police attempted to arrest him he retreated to his room in the St. Francis Hotel, threatening to kill any one attempting to enter. Officer CHAPELLE entered the room, when MULLIGAN fired twice at him. CHAPELLE retreated without receiving any injuries. MULLIGAN then opened his window and fired shots down Dupont street. John HART, foreman of Eureka Engine Company, was coming up the street and received a ball in his heart, killing him instantly. Several parties essayed to enter MULLIGAN's room, but were intimidated by his threats. Jack McNABB, a gambler well-known throughout this State, depending upon the friendship that existed by MULLIGAN and himself, attempted to reach MULLIGAN's room and pacify him, but was shot at the foot of the stairs leading to MULLIGAN's room, the ball struck on the shoulder, ranging down and entering the stomach, he returned to the ground floor saying "Billy has killed me," and shortly afterwards expired. The excitement had now become most intense. Several policemen armed with muskets were stationed at the windows in the house on the opposite side of Clay street, one of them catching a glimpse of MULLIGAN, fired and missed him. MULLIGAN then came down to the 2nd story and peeped out at a doorway, when he was shot through the head and instantly killed by a policeman. MULLIGAN was arrested yesterday at the request of some of his friends and was confined in the station house all night. His friends say that he was delirious when discharged from custody this morning and they censure the police for setting him at liberty while in such a dangerous state." "HARVEY--Joseph HARVEY Passes Away--Joseph HARVEY, the well-known sporting man, and owner of the pool-room in the Buffalo Building, passed away on Friday afternoon, August 9, from a severe attack of typhoid pneumonia, which he contracted while looking over his hunting preserves, near Suisun. He was sick ten days, and it was expected that his strong constitution would pull him through. His death was a severe blow to his wife and to his friends. The funeral took place Monday, from his residence on Franklin Street, San Francisco. Immense quantities of flowers and floral pieces were sent by his many friends. All the Board of Town Trustees attended the funeral. Dr. THOMAS, of Howard Street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The honorary pall-bearers were: Ed. SMITH, Captain SEYMOUR, John FARLEY, John GILIARDO, Chas. ASHER, Mayor THOMAS, Thomas FROST, Charles HEGGERTY, William DOHRMER, James CONWAY, Frank DAROUX and Max COHEN. The remains were interred alongside his three brothers, in Woodlawn Cemetery. The pool-rooms were closed until Tuesday, and Mayor Thomas had the plaza flag flying at half-mast out of his respect for Mr. HARVEY. HARVEY purchased a lot of provisions, chartered a steamer and donated the provisions to the local Relief Committee. In addition to the pool-room interests, he was heavily interested in mining, real estate, and other business propositions. By his shrewdness he amassed an estate worth over five hundred thousand dollars. A day before his death he left a will bequeathing one-half his estate to his wife, and the other half to his brothers, sisters and close relatives, naming the widow, Louise A. HARVEY, Frank DAROUX and Frank MASKEY, as executors without bonds, to settle the estate. The HARVEY home place is County Tyrone, Ireland, where he was born fifty-one years ago. He wishes the executors to have it fixed so that a HARVEY could find a home there. Mrs. HARVEY will dispose of her interest in the pool-rooms. Frank DAROUX, in speaking of his death, said he was the fourth prominent pool-room man to pass away in the last year. [David E. HAWKINS, father of Mrs. C.H. WAGNER, of this place, and well-known to all old residents of Hollister, met an awful death at San Francisco last Friday. We copy the ???Call???s??? account of the casualty: ???David E. HAWKINS, a bookkeeper, 60 years old, was hurled to an awful death yesterday by the big flywheel at the mill of the D.H. BIBB Lumber Co. at Stockton & Beach Sts. Plunging head first upon a rubber belt he was drawn with fearful rapidity between the belt and the wheel, which was making 110 revolutions every minute. In a fraction of a second he was carried by the wheel and belt through a concrete lined aperture, the diameter of which below the wheel is not more than 6 inches. His head was crushed and nearly every bone in his body was broken???He was a bookkeeper and confidential man in SMITH???s cash store for 6 years preceding the change in ownership last March???He leaves a wife and 2 daughters.??? [Continued from the Hollister paper] Deceased was formerly in business here, conducting the Victor Flour Mills???After selling out here he went to San Francisco???The remains were brought to Hollister on the noon train last Sunday and were interred in the IOOF cemetery in the afternoon." "HAYS--6 MEN KILLED on BOARD the MOSES TAYLOR -- The steamer Moses Taylor, of the Webb line, arrived from Australia and New Zealand yesterday. The 'Bulletin' of last evening contains the following: It will be remembered that the vessel left San Francisco on the 24th of May, after having been handsomely christened by a banquet of prominent business men, and inspected by the general public. When about 4 hours' sail from the Heads, during the 1st Assistant Engineer's watch, the flue of the starboard boiler collapsed. The hot water and steam escaping, rushed down upon the doomed men below, killing 4 and fatally scalding the 1st Assistant Engineer and a water tender; the 2 latter survived but a few hours, although they received every attention from Surgeon WOODBIDGE. Annexed are the names of the victims: Thomas HARRISON, 1st Assistant Engineer, age 32; Nicholas PENDERGAST, fireman, age 28; H. MOONEY, fireman, age 27; Paul NICOLSON, coal passer, age 29; Wm. YOUNG, coal passer, age 32; Oliver HAYS, water tender, age 28." "HERTLE--R. HERTLE, whose sad death in San Francisco last week was fully reported in the daily press, was formerly a resident of this place. He came to Healdsburg in 1857 and resided here for 20 years, where he was a prominent business man and identified himself with the early enterprises of the town. Although rather eccentric and strong in his likes and dislikes, he was faithful, honest and trustworthy, and at the time of his death had a large circle of friends among our older residents. The body was brought from the city Tuesday morning on the 11 o'clock train, and the funeral took place from the depot and was largely attended by friends, especially Masons, of which order he was a respected member. His body was interred in Oak Mound

"HIGGINS--DEATH OF CAPTAIN EDWARD HIGGINS--Captain Edward HIGGINS, late Agent of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, died yesterday afternoon at The Grand Hotel. Captain HIGGINS was a native of Norfolk, Virginia, was educated for the Navy and passed the necessary examination to enter the Navy as midshipman. He served in the Navy during the Mexican War, and at it's close, came to California, being the second in command when the United States took possession of Monterey in 1847. After that, he went to New York and entered the merchant marine, and was placed in command of large ships plying between New York and foreign ports. At one time, he was master of the steamer, Vanderbilt, now the ship, Three Brothers, and made the quickest trip on record on her between New York and Havre, the American residents at the latter port presenting him with a service of silver plate. At the beginning of the war, he cast his lot with the Confederate Navy and obtained quite high position. At one time he was in command of the blockade runners, made good his escape to New Orleans and went to Mobile. That city was placed for a time under martial law by the Confederacy and he was placed in command of the land and naval forces. Soon after the close of the war, he returned to New York and found employment with an insurance company. About two years ago on the recommendation of ship owners in whose employ he had been, he was appointed Agent of the Pacific Mail Company at this port, which position he held for a number of months. Latterly, he has been engaged in business as a stock broker. He was about 53 years of age, and leaves a wife and brother in this city." Source: Daily Alta California, 1 February 1875. "HOAG--Dr. L.B. HOAG, uncle of O.H. HOAG, of this city, died in San Francisco last Thursday, at the age of 73y. The deceased was among the earlier practitioners of this county. He came here in 1869 and located in Bloomfield where he practiced his profession for ten years. His death was the result of a general breaking down of the system, incident on old age. The funeral was held in Bloomfield Friday. From O.H. HOAG, who with his family, attended the funeral, it is learned that the death was very sudden. He had risen in the morning apparently suffering none of those symptoms premonitory of death, and made a number of calls among his patients. On returning from his professional visits, he was overcome by a sudden weakness and death shortly ensued. He had one of the largest practices in the metropolis and despite his old age, was as energetic in his ministrings to the needs of suffering humanity as many of the younger practitioners. The funeral was held under the auspices of the Odd Fellows Lodge of Bloomfield, with which he had affiliated for 20 years." Source: Sonoma Democrat (Santa Rosa, CA), 19 Jan 1889. While crawling through thick undergrowth the gun was discharged, the charge fearfully mangling his left arm and crushing the shoulder blade. By great exertion he managed to crawl to a sheepherder's camp a short distance away and there the herder staunched the flow of blood the best he could under the circumstances. HOLTON then walked to Grass Valley a few miles distance and, securing a horse, rode to La Porte and got a physician. HOLTON was nearly dead from loss of blood when the doctor arrived, but he rallied somewhat and was removed to Little Grass Valley, where he now lies to point of death. "HONG--CHINESE MURDER -- A Chinaman was brutally murdered on Monday evening, in an alley, in San Francisco, by 2 of his countrymen. The 'Chronicle' contains the following account of the affair: Officer SCHIMP, in attempting to arrest one of the parties, was shot in the hand, the ball passing obliquely through the ball of the index finger, and glancing off the bone. The 2 men who did the shooting, and are supposed to have stabbed the victim, were arrested by Officers HARROLD and SCHIMP, and brought to the Station-house, where they gave their names as AH KEE and SAM QUONG. Upon AH KEE was found a revolver, with 2 chambers discharge. AH HONG, the wounded man, was brought to the City Prison, where he died in about 10 minutes after. Dr. JOHNSON found that 4 balls had entered AH HONG's body, 2 of which had passed through his heart. Beside the bullet wounds, there were several knife stabs in different parts of his body. These 3 Chinamen belong to the SAM YUP Company, and AH HONG keeps a cigar store on the corner of Washington street and Washington alley. The trouble is supposed to have arisen about money matters, although nothing definite can be ascertained. Charges of murder have been entered against AH KEE and SAM QUONG, and a little Chinese boy has been held as a witness and supposed accomplice." "HOWARD--CORONER'S INQUEST in the CASE of CATHARINE HOWARD -- An inquest upon the body of Catharine HOWARD was held at San Francisco on Friday. The story of her life as revealed in the evidence, breathes a warning in every word, and the heart grows sick in contemplation of the misery and wretchedness consequent upon a career in which every hope of future happiness is sacrificed, and life becomes a burden too heavy to be borne. Among the papers of the deceased was found a letter supposed to be from her father, addressed to 597 Houston street, New York; but nothing was brought to light by which that father will ever come to knowledge of the sad fate of his daughter. Let the mantle of Charity fall upon the erring dead, and the living learn a lesson, "taking heed lest they fall." We append the evidence of a principal witness in the case: ELLEN TAFFTS, sworn -- I knew the deceased; she was named Kate MARSHALL; only name I ever knew her by; have known her nearly 4 months; roomed with her in the same house for 2 weeks previous to her death; she was on a spree for 10 days; ate nothing, drank all the time; about 10 ago I brought her 3 letters from the Express office; one of the was from her husband, Mr. MARSHALL, so she said, asking for money, $60; she felt very bad because she had not the money to send and she said "that letter will kill me;" she dressed herself and went out in the street; I followed her; she went to the grocery after liquor; I told the man not to give it to her; she came back -- gave the money to Mrs. Caroline E. LONG, who keeps the house, and asked if she would lend her the money; she answered yes, if Kate would stay in the house; she did so for 2 or 3 days; after that she ran about among the neighbors and got drunk, and kept so for several days; complained of being low spirited, and said she would die with a broken heart; at 12 o'clock on Tuesday night, we were in the bed together, and I saw her about to take something out of a vial; I said, "Kitty, what are you doing?" she answered "I am taking a little laudanum, to get to sleep," she told me she got it out of Mrs. Caroline's armor; I grabbed the bottle, and called for Mrs. Caroline and Miss PAGE; they came and took it away from her; I then went to bed in the next room; about 7 o'clock I woke up and found the deceased lying on her face on the bed, with her hands doubled up under her; I turned her back on the pillow, and called for Mrs. Caroline, and told her that Kate was dying; Mrs. Caroline sent me for the doctor; I went right away; the doctor came and attended her; she died at half past 11 o'clock on Wednesday." "HUDSON--In Melbourne, Australia, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Otto C. SCHUMACHER, Nov. 23, 1891, Harry HUDSON, aged 56 years. Death of Harry HUDSON -- The steamer Monowai which left Sydney, Australia, on Nov. 30th and arrived at San Francisco on Christmas day, brought a letter containing the sad news of the death of Harry HUDSON at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Otto C. SCHUMACHER, in Port Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 23, 1891, after an illness of nearly 4 weeks. The malady to which he succumbed was cancer of the stomach. Three skillful physicians attended him and everything possible was done to save him; but medical skill and kind nursing were of no avail. Mr. HUDSON went to Australia about a year ago and was followed by his son Bert a few months later, his wife and daughter Lena remaining in Salinas. On the 10th of Nov. Mrs. HUDSON received a cablegram from her son-in-law, Mr. SCHUMACHER, saying, "Husband ill -- come," and 2 days afterwards (Nov. 12th) she and her daughter Lena sailed from San Francisco for Australia on the steamer Alameda, cherishing the hope that the life of the loved one might be spared, at least until they could reach his bedside across the sea. But they were doomed to disappointment. The voyage would take nearly a month, and the spirit of Harry HUDSON winged its flight from earth when wife and daughter were 11 days out from San Francisco speeding across the broad Pacific as fast as the good ship Alameda could take them. Ere this their tears have fallen like rain on the mound neath which he sleeps. Harry HUDSON was a genial gentleman, a loving husband, an affectionate father and a true friend. The deceased was a member in good standing of Salinas Lodge, No.

204, F.&A.M. and the A.O.U.W., carrying a policy of $2000 in the latter order in favor of his wife. A host of friends here will drop a tear to his memory and deeply sympathise with the near and dear ones who mourn his departure to that "undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns." "HUGHES--The body of Charles E. HUGHES arrived on the steamer of last Monday. Upon the steamer coming in sight the vessel's flag being at half mast indicated this fact, and the flagstuffs of our city soon bore evidence of mourning. The remains had been embalmed at San Francisco and when the casket was opened were found to be present a very life like appearance. The casket was taken charge of by the Undertaker of this city and conveyed to the late residence of the deceased, where the remains were viewed by the heart broken family and relatives. The funeral took place on Tuesday at 9 A.M. from the Catholic Church, where a solemn mass of requiem was celebrated for the repose of his immortal soul. Notwithstanding the stormy weather, the rain fell in torrents, the church was crowded with the relatives and friends of the deceased, to take their last look and pay their respects to one who was a kind father, a good husband and a true friend. His remains were then borne to the Catholic Cemetery followed by a large concourse of people, and deposited beside the grave of his mother who died about a month ago." "HUMPHREY--Charles Franklin HUMPHREY--The death, after several month's illness of Charles Franklin HUMPHREY, well-known attorney of San Francisco, on Friday, the 17 August 1945, ends a vibrant and colorful personality of old San Francisco. His adventurous life began when his pioneer mother, forced to flee from marauding Indians, held the child for hours in her arms above a Kansas stream. His father, James C. HUMPHREY, established the first newspaper in Republic and Decatur Counties, Kansas. As a boy he worked as a printer's devil on the widely-quoted Belleville Telescope, owned and edited by his father, and founded by him in 1870. Later he earned his way through college as a reporter on the Kansas City Star and Topeka Capital, and was graduated by the University of Kansas, with the degree of L.L.B. After leaving college he practiced law for about a year in Portland, Oregon, under the late W. W. COTTON, brother of Judge Aylett R. COTTON of San Mateo County. In 1895 Mr. HUMPHREY moved to San Francisco, where with thirty-five cents in his pocket after furnishing his office, he began his long and able career in the law.

Never acknowledging defeat, all his cases were interesting to him all his clients "innocent victims" for whom he was a fiery partisan. In 1899 he married Miss Elizabeth WARREN, a native of England. Two sons, James W. HUMPHREY and Jack C. HUMPHREY, were born to them on Washington Street where they lived until widening interests took him to Europe, where he was instrumental in consolidating many of the California oil properties of Shell Oil Company. Subsequently business required him to make frequent trips to various parts of the world, but he always maintained his San Francisco law office as his headquarters. In 1919 he became interested in the agricultural possibilities of San Mateo County and purchased a large ranch which was a part of the Old Spanish Grant Punta del Ano Nuevo, near Pescadero, growing artichokes on a large scale and dairy cattle feed, and maintaining a herd of 500 dairy cows, which is said to be one of the largest herds in the state free from tuberculosis and Bang's disease. At the ranch, and at his Berkeley home Mr. HUMPHREY, being hospitable inclined and a jovial host spent many happy hours entertaining a wide circle of friends with stories of his experiences abroad and in old San Francisco. Recently he entertained with great pleasure a group of our wounded boys from Dibble General Hospital, and only last week was host to the "Queens Bench," an association of women lawyers of San Francisco. Mr. HUMPHREY was a member of the Bohemian Club for over fifty years, a life member of B.P.O. Elks, the Commonwealth Club, California State Chamber of Commerce and a director of Associated Farmers of California. He was a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of California, San Francisco Bar Association, Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity, a trustee of the Kansas Pioneer Memorial Society, San Mateo County Historical Association and E Clampus Vitus. A 32 degree Mason, and a member of Knights Templar, Shrine and past patron of Golden Gate chapter of Eastern Star, he was signally honored in 1944 when he was presented with the Masonic Gold Button by Excelsior Lodge No. 166 F. & A. M., and in the same year Islam Temple, in recognition of his half century of membership in the Masonic order, dating back to April 17, 1893, at Laurence Lodge F. & A. M. No. 6. He is survived by his widow, Elizabeth W. HUMPHREY; a son, James W. HUMPHREY of Oakland; four grandchildren and a sister, Adela G. HAYNES of Mountain View. His younger son, Jack C. HUMPHREY, preceded him in death two years ago. Funeral Service were conducted by Excelsior Lodge No. 166 F. & A. M. at 1:00 P.M. August 21st at the mortuary of Halstead & Co., 1123 Sutter St., near Polk, San Francisco." "HYMAN--Henry W. HYMAN--On the 26th of March, 1905, there died in San Francisco a man of sterling character, Henry W. HYMAN, with a host of friends who loved him for his goodness, and his great-hearted charity which was always given in a quiet way. Of a deeply religious nature, he kept much to himself, but it was only for the purpose of inward study that he did so. Prussia was the land of his birth, in the year 1842. His education was obtained in his native land. When he became a young man the spirit of pioneering caused him to journey to the United States and for a time he lived in Portland, Ore. Later he moved to the Hawaiiin Islands, where he engaged in a mercantile business. He never really established a residence in the islands, but called San Francisco his home. Here he maintained offices connected with his business. Associated with him were his brothers and with their united efforts and shrewdness the business developed to huge proportions. Four years before his death he retired. On the 3d of March, 1867, Miss Julia STODOLE became his wife. She was a woman of exceptional qualities, fine character and noble spirit. Her death took place in 1915. Henry HYMAN was a member of Temple Emanu-El and at one time a director of Mount Zion Hospital. He was also connected with the various Jewish charitable organizations and the work he did in association with them will be long felt and remembered. Seven children were born to this worthy man and his wife. Those surviving are: Mrs. Theresa STONE, Walter L. HYMAN, Samuel L. HYMAN, Mrs. Fred BARUCH and Robert H. HYMAN."
