CALIFORNIA RESEARCH
Part 3
By Lucile B. Rowe

V 22 r

The records which will prove to be of most worth to the genealogist will be found in the County Archives or Hall of Records, located in each county seat.

Before starting research in the County Archives you should consult the Publication of the California Historical Survey Commission, "Guide to The County Archives," by Owen Coy, Ph.D. Director and Archivist. This very valuable book was printed by the State Printing Office in 1919. (The Document Section of the State Library has a circulating copy). This book lists the available records in each County Archives, the condition of the records and where housed at the time of printing (1919).

There has been nothing published since that time that would give us comparable information on the records in the County Archives.

Check to find who has custody of the records you are seeking. In California counties it may be either the County Clerk or the Recorder. (See either Handy Book for Genealogists, by Everton & Rasmusson, Fourth Edition, or Search and Research by Noel C. Stevenson, 1969 edition). These two books list the records available and who has custody of each type of records.

If you are having trouble locating an ancestor who might have settled in one of the Mother Lode counties check the following records: Quartz Claims, Mineral Claims, Water Rights, Land Claims. While these do not give much actual genealogical data they will help you establish the fact of residence in the county of the claimant, and perhaps those whose claims adjoined his. These records are especially valuable for the time between the years of the Federal Census or before the County directories were printed. For counties where logging was carried on it might be wise to check the following: Timber Claims, Permits to cut timber or engage in mining on public lands.

The County Clerk will have the Court records. There may have been law suits over mining claims, water rights, or land boundaries.

The County Recorder will have the deeds for land which is located in that county. They also have Plat Books which will establish the location of the land in question and should show who the neighbors were.

Naturalization Records are kept in the county offices of the Superior Court. They are also on file in the United Circuit Courts at Los Angeles and at San Francisco.

For records of men who have served in the War of the Rebellion (Civil War) check the following: "California Men in the War of Rebellion, by Brig. Gen. Richard H. Orton. (The Document Section, State Library has a copy which circulates). This book covers the years from 1861 - 1867.

The following books will be found in the Document Section of the California State Library. Most of these books cover records for the entire United States as well as California.

1. United States Report from Secretary of War in Relation to Pension Establishment of the U. S., Washington, 1853, 3 Vols.
 - Vol. 1 - Northeastern States
 - Vol. 2 - Mid-Atlantic States
 - Vol. 3 - Southern & Western States (look here for California men).

2. List of Pensioners on Roll -- 1 January 1883; gives names of each pensioner, cause of pension, Post Office address of pensioner, rate of pension per month, and date of original allowance. It also gives pensioners living in Canada.
3. Annual Report of the Adjutant-General for 1861-1867. (pub. 1869). Contains list of officers and enrolled men of California Volunteers who died in service of the United States. pp. 108-125
4. The War of the Rebellion. (General Index - additions and corrections - 1901, Government Printing Office, Washington. John S. Moody, Indexer). Series I is a compilation of the Official Records of the Union and Confederate armies. (Look here for men from California).
5. Check List of U. S. Publications. (Ask at Information Desk). (The Library checked with pencil those that they have). Pension lists on page 545. This takes the lists up to 1909; after that they will be found filed under the name of the State. You will need to examine all cards for ADJUTANT GENERAL.
6. U. S. Government Publications. INDEX -- by years, found at the desk. Vol. 1-1885. Vol 2 - 1886, etc. (Check for publications pertinent to California.)
7. Political Conventions in California, 1849 - 1892.
8. Historical Register and Dictionary of United States Army. Three Volumes - (Sept. 29, 1789 - Mar. 2, 1903). This book circulates.
9. CHECK LIST OF STATE PUBLICATIONS -- (California).
10. Recent Accessions to the Library (1900), -- Genealogy and American & Local History, Family Histories, Periodicals; Historical Societies' Publications; State, Town and County Histories. (Since 1900 - check at information desk, California Room, State Library).

The Law Library -- (In State Library (Third floor), has the following:
Digest of Decisions, Department of Interior. Appealed pensions, bounty claims, cases reported.
(Pension Decisions from above check list -- Vols. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9).

The following records will be found at the California State "Archives and Central Records Depository", (1020 "O" St., Sacramento):

1. Assessors (Assessment) Rolls and Plat Books.
2. Index to Sacramento County Court Records, 1849-1879.
3. Index to Spanish-Mexican Land Grants (these are in both Spanish & English Consult the Index for the name of the person receiving the grant).
4. Index to State Supreme Court Cases.
5. Index to State Superior Court Records.
6. Land Commissioner's Case Files.
7. Local Militia (State of Calif.) 1850-1860, Muster Rolls.
8. Index to Mining Claims filed.
9. Nevada County -- Case Records.
10. Notary Public of the Counties' Papers.
11. Pre-earthquake Court Records of San Francisco.

Dr. Davis, Historian and Archivist, assured us that there are many records for the pre-earthquake period of San Francisco.

Be sure to check the file of old Newspapers. Those that are on film will be found in the Periodical Room (Fourth Floor). Those that are still in bound volumes are on file in the California Room (Third Floor).

Many of the counties will have files of the papers printed in their areas.

Voting Registers, called "The Great Register", give much genealogical information. The Great Registers of recent years contain more information than those of the earlier years. These Registers will tell you whether a voter was naturalized, the date of that event and the Court in which he was granted naturalization.

The California Room has many Manuscripts which contain important genealogical information. (Look under the name of the person, or ask at the Information Desk.) The California Room also has Diaries. (Ask at the Information Desk about these.)

BOOKS ON THE LIBRARY SHELVES:

The Counties of the United States and Their Genealogical Value, by E. Kay Kirlham.

Shows the direct and helpful relationship between the counties of the United States and the basic record of genealogy - the federal census return.

For the beginner as well as the professional in genealogical research this book can be recommended as a timesaver in pointing to the use of the census schedules in both historical and genealogical research.

The Counties of the United States is one of several books on genealogy that point to specifics helps in American genealogical research from this author's facile pen.

San Francisco Ship Passenger Lists, Volume II, by Louis J. Rasmussen.

This volume is the second in a series of volumes which will list the names of passengers arriving in the Port of San Francisco from 1850 to 1875. All volumes are fully indexed and a master index volume will be published.

As San Francisco was the main entry port for the settlement of the West this work will be of interest to historians, researchers and genealogists.

The early pioneers of the West came from all parts of the world and many selected the sea route. The passenger lists in this series will reflect vessels from all ports.

This work is the first to explore this facet of Western lore during the formative quarter century of 1850-75.

Fundamentals of Genealogical Research, by Laureen R. Jaussi and Gloria D. Chaston.

In this new book, the authors, introduce a systematic approach, or scientific method, of value to all genealogical researchers and provide information regarding the records to search.

This volume contains previously unpublished information on L.D.S. Church records and their usefulness in genealogical research.
