15 Checks Are Tied To Mrs. Dermer

Fifteen checks which a State Criminal Identification and Investigation Division documents examiner said were made out in Mrs. Doris Dermer's handwriting are in evidence in a preliminary hearing into grand theft charges involving La Tienda Guild funds.

The hearing, which opened yesterday, will continue Feb. 28. The delay was requested by Assistant Public Defender Hugh Wesley Goodwin so Mrs. Dermer's husband, Albert, can testify.

Repeat Expected

Goodwin is expected to have Dermer repeat his earlier assertion that he forced his wife to write some of the checks and that she received none of the proceeds.

Dermer who faces one to guilty plea in the case, is expected to be returned from the Vacaville State Prison Reception Center to testify.

The Dermers were arrested in December when an investigation revealed the disappearance of approximately $42,500 in guild funds raised through its thrift shop for the benefit of the Valley Children's Hospital.

Goodwin yesterday accepted as evidence a documents by Deputy Dist. Atty. Phillip Officer. The report said the checks were made out in Mrs. Dermer's handwriting.

General Authority

Mrs. J. F. Lofton, guild president, testified Mrs. Dermer had a general authority to write checks for the guild. Mrs. Dermer served as bookkeeper for the guild for 18 years.

The charges against Mrs. Dermer involve two checks written and cashed in 1969, five in 1970 and eight in 1971. Some of the checks were made out to Mrs. Dermer, others to cash and at least one to the First National Bank of Fresno.
