Man, 22, Dies; Autopsy Set

An autopsy has been ordered in the death of James Malcom Austin, 22, whose body was found yesterday in a friend's apartment at 1370 N. Abby St. where he had been living for about a week.

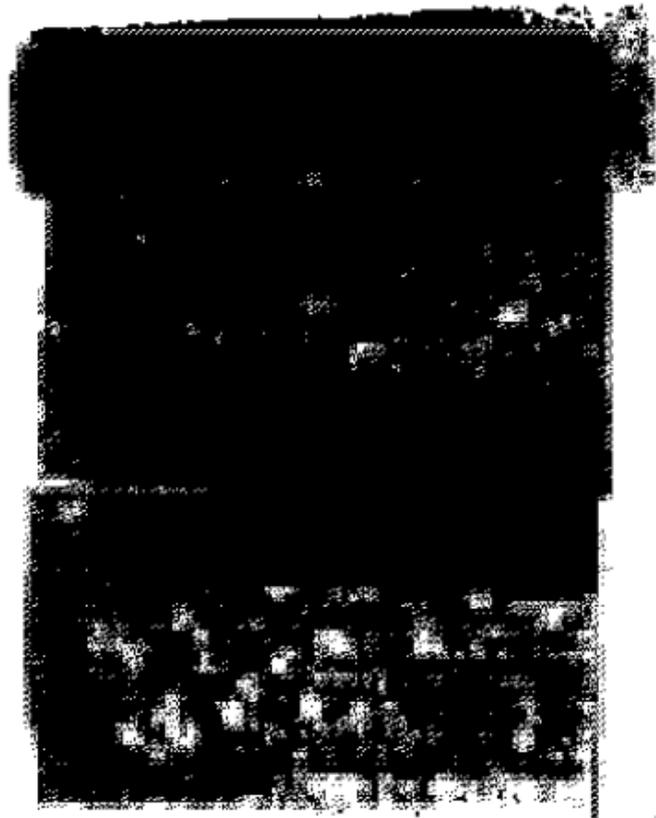

According to police, Austin apparently died of an overdose of drugs.

Investigators said the death was reported shortly before 12:30 p.m. by Larry Wayne Zack, 20, when he returned from school.

Police said Austin was found on the floor in his room next to a couch.

Officers said friends reported Austin had been under the influence of amphetamines.
