Hanford Journal, Tuesday, April 15, 1941: Graveside services will be held this morning in Grangeville Cemetery for Mrs Mary Gropengeizer, former resident of the Armona district, who passed away in Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo Co., last week. The Rev. L.O. Dabritz will officiate at the ceremonies, which formerly were to have been held in Arroyo Grande. Due to impassibility of highways between here and Arroyo Grande, the services were delayed a week. Mrs Gropengeizer leaves a son James, of Arroyo Grande and her nephew David Porter of Hanford.

KUCKENBACKER	George	1941	Jan25	U			PEH							37787	U
Hanford Journal, Sun. Jan. 26, 1941: George C. Kuckenbacker died yesterday from a self inflicted bullet wound at the home of his son, Harold Kuckenbaker, a quarter of a mile south of the Camden Store, Coroner Wilson reported. Wilson said Kuckenbacker was despondent over ill-health. He shot himself with a 22. caliber rifle, the coroner said. Kuckenbacker leaves a wife, Mrs Harriett Kuckenbacker. The body was taken to the Peoples Undertaking Parlors where funeral arrangements will be announced.

				Re: Aaron Mooney, Undertaker, Lemoore, Calif. Record of Funerals #153 Died: September 10, 1898. Buried: September 13, 1898. Ordered by: J.H. Fox Ref: Kings Co. Pictorial Hist. In 1872 Surveyed ten acres of the 160 acres he had bought from Moses Bush and thus began the town of Lemoore, Calif. In 1873 postal officials declined Dr. Moore's suggested name of La Tache and instead corrupted the doctor's name and called the town Lemoore.
