Re: Tulare Count Times, Visalia, Calif. Thursday November 9, 1899. S.H. (sic) Winter, a traveling man in the employ of the Sperry Mill Company, with headquarters in Fresno, Calif., committed suicide at Hanford this Mornina, by taking a dose of strychnine. Winter was in this city two or three days this week, leaving here on thursday, and so far as could be observed nothing was out of the way with him, except he might have been drinking a little more than usual, though he was not a hard drinker.
