P R E F A C E

In this the third and last volume of Old Cemeteries of San Joaquin County, as in volumes one and two, records from earliest known greaves to and including those of the year 1920 are listed*. In some instances, especially for a small family cemetery, later dates have been included. When possible, graves within family plots have been listed together.

Diligent search has been made to find all graves in the county; and, so far as is known, none have been overlooked.

San Joaquin Genealogical Society offers its sincere thanks to Mr. Glenn A. Kennedy, Secretary of the Board of Stockton Rural Cemetery, for all his help in locating the small and unknown cemeteries, for his hours spent in checking records, and for his deep interest in this project.

The Society wishes to express gratitude also to Mrs. Eleanor Le Mieux of San Joaquin Catholic Cemetery for her help and for her hours spent in copying records of the Catholic Cemetery, without which help many names would have been omitted.

Appreciation is also to be expressed to Mrs. David Schwartz of the Jewish Cemetery, to the late Mr. Perry Cox of Linden Cemetery, to the late Mr. Freeman Mills of Woodbridge Cemetery, and to Mrs. Earl Rowland of the Haggin Memorial Museum.

Recognition should be given to the particular members of the Society who have devoted time and attention to this project. Outstanding among those to whom credit is due for the compilation of the three volumes of cemetery records (including this one) published by the Society are Annice (Mathis) Flack (Mrs. Allen Flack), project chairman for the first volume, Elinor (Bosworth) Wakefield (Mrs. L. D. Wakefield, member of the committee throughout and chairman for the second volume, and Dolores (Sievers) Syme (Mrs. Ren Syme), project chairman for the third and last volume. They have been indefatigable in pursuing the varied activities related to the production of such books: the seeking of permission to copy records; the searching for forgotten and almost hidden graveyards; the organizing, directing, and taking part in the copying of records directly from tombstones as well as in consulting office records in larger cemeteries and in Haggin Memorial Museum; the rechecking of records with the help of authorities mentioned above; countless hours spent in preparing manuscript for publication; and, finally, in helping in the actual binding of the books. Also helping have been the following members: Miss Mary Bloom, Esther (Pope) Bonta (Mrs. Robert), Dorothy (Mason) Bredy (Mrs. Ray), Lavonne (Goettsch) Campbell (Mrs. Ralph), Mary (Gorrell) Curtis (Mrs. Dwight W.), Mary (Marsh) Hughes (Mrs. J. P.), Fern (Reilly) Hyman (Mrs. Jack), Roberta (Sievers) McKenzie (Mrs. D. E.), and Myrna (Padgett) Sievers (Mrs. D. V.).

TEMPLE ISRAEL CEMETERY
(Jewish Cemetery)

An event of historic interest to Stockton was the unveiling and dedication of a granite marker in the 110-year-old Jewish Cemetery bounded by Poplar, Acacia, Pilgrim and Union Streets. A bronze plaque, mounted on grey granite, reads:

Temple Israel Cemetery

"This hallowed ground was donated by Captain Charles M. Weber in 1851 for use as a cemetery by the Jewish Community of Stockton. It is the oldest Jewish cemetery in continued use in California and West of the Rocky Mountains."

California Registered Historical Landmark No. 765
Plaque placed by the California State Park
Commission in co-operation with Temple Israel,
December 10, 1961

The ground was reconsecrated to its' sacred purpose by Rabbi Bernard Rosenberg of Congregation Temple Israel of Stockton.

Five years ago, Mrs. David Schwartz began the research necessary to the historically correct restoration of the cemetery. Floods in years gone by had displaced headstones. Time and weather had practically erased inscriptions on many of them. Thirteen of these stones are more than one hundred years old. The oldest, marking the grave of Solomon Friedlander, bears the date November 4, 1851. Every monument has been re-set. Mrs. Schwartz had many of these re-engraved, as they were originally, in Hebrew.

This work which went ahead through the effort and financing of interested individuals in the local community, attracted the attention of Hal Altman of Sacramento, who suggested that the cemetery be marked by the State of California as a landmark. It is largely through his effort that this ancient cemetery, now a place of beauty newly planted to grass and cypress trees, will go on California's rolls of Historic Landmarks.

This is the only State Marker in the City of Stockton.

LINDEN CEMETERY (Linden Grove)

Linden, California

Located in the town of Linden, California, about twelve miles from Stockton, on Highway 8 (Linden Road). Little is known of the beginning of the cemetery, but thought to be started about 1850. The new part of the cemetery was started August 26, 1877 (formerly the Ashley Family property). Articles of Incorporation, March 10, 1877, were signed by David Harrison, W. A. Davenport, W. H. Russell, George Klinger and W. G. Prather. Signed by Thomas Beck, Sec. of State, March 10, 1877. There is no known record of a deed, and it is not known whether the land was donated for the purpose of a cemetery and, if so, by whom. Some graves may have been moved, as quite a few markers are missing from the graves.

The above information was obtained from the late Mr. Perry Cox, Linden Cemetery Superintendent.

WOODBIDGE CEMETERY
Woodbridge, Calif.

Woodbridge is located about one-half mile north of Lodi and the cemetery is located in the southern portion of the town, near the grammar school. (At one time, these towns were approximately five miles apart.)

The following names were copied from records belonging to the late Mr. Freeman Mills and Mrs. N. Carey of Lodi. Members of the San Joaquin Genealogical Society checked the headstones in the cemetery with the records to correct any errors. The names with question marks were on Mr. Mills' records, but could not find the graves. Many wooden markers were too faint to read, perhaps markers were missing.

The earliest settlers were from the east coast. Later, a great number came from Holland and about 80% of the graves are of Dutch descent, the first family, Herman Johnson, Jan. 21, 1821-Aug. 4, 1875.

Clendenin, vice-pres., Mrs. Maggie Hughes, treas., F. Hutchinson, secr. The following were members: R. J. McKinnon, Geo. Elchoff, J. F. Goslin, James Nutt, Perry Yaple, Magdaline Elckhoff, by J. S. Moulton, her attorney-in-fact and D. D. Davis. Incorporated in 1899. The land was donated by the Moulton family and in 1938, another strip of land, north and east of the original part, was donated by Edith D. Moulton for which she was exempted from paying dues the rest of her life.

Present day directors are - Henry Kamps, Sr., S. E. Vanderveen, Pete Hekman, Garret DeJong, and Garet Meninga. The cemetery is located on North Stockton and 99 Highway, Ripon. The earliest grave noted was in 1861. (Copied from the Ripon Cemetery records)

TRACY PUBLIC CEMETERY

Tracy, California

The Tracy Cemetery Association was originally organized and incorporated in December 1881 to procure and hold certain land to be used exclusively as a cemetery. Land was added to the original holdings in July 1898, and also in January 1911. The property and responsibility was transferred to the Tracy Public Cemetery District on January 25, 1930. It has been in perpetual care since 1929.

The cemetery is located at the corner of Schulte and Mac-Arthur Roads, about one mile south of Tracy. Coverage of the burials was extended to 1930, as records were not kept before 1927, or if kept, are quite vague. Now a well-kept cemetery, with wooden markers replaced with stone when known, but quite a few graves unmarked and unknown. Mr. Larson is the present Superintendent and Mrs. Longmire, the Secretary.

Stockton State Hospital
510 E. Magnolia Street
Stockton, California 95202

The Stockton State Hospital was opened in August, 1851, to care for those with either physical or mental illness. In 1852, it became the first hospital in the State of California to be used only for those with mental disorders.

SAN JOAQUIN GENERAL HOSPITAL BURIALS
French Camp, California

The following burials are the only records available for our book. In 1935, some of the bodies were removed and cremated. Mr. Cecil Johnson, of the hospital, has a list of these removals. The other bodies are still buried in the old cemetery. A chart showing burials was destroyed when the old administration building was torn down in 1962 or 1963. For any specific person, you may inquire for the case history from the hospital, but the name and date of death must be known.

(C-any number) means number of years as a resident of California.

W P A CEMETERY RECORDS

The following burials were copied from the WPA Cemetery Records on file in the Haggin Museum, Stockton, California. and were not listed in our first volume of "Old Cemeteries of San Joaquin County, California". It was not until early 1963 that we found the records and were given permission to copy them. We hope that they are the names from the graves that did not have tombstones, or the ones with wooden markers that were so weather-beaten as to be unreadable, or perhaps the ones that were burned. The members of our society found a great many unmarked graves at all of the cemeteries when we started our project in 1961. Perhaps some were moved during the years since the WPA Works Program.

Most of the following cemeteries were in our first book, "Old Cemeteries of San Joaquin County, California, Vol. I".

SAN JOAQUIN CATHOLIC CEMETERY

Stockton

by

Robert Bonta

Stockton's first Catholic cemetery was opened sometime in the year 1852, during the pastorate of Father Dominique Blaive, first pastor of St. Mary of the Assumption Church. This early burial plot, donated to the Church by the city's founder, Captain Charles Maria Weber, covered a city block bounded by Sonora, Jose Jesus (Grant), Church, and Aurora Streets. In 1856 Captain Weber officially deeded the three-hundred-foot-square block to the Church. There is no record of where burials were made prior to the opening of this cemetery.

With the growth of the city, and of the parish, the creation of a new cemetery became imperative. As early as 1862 some thought was given to the purchase of a fifteen acre plot adjoining the new Rural (Protestant) Cemetery, but it was not until 1879 that action was taken. In that year, on January 15th, Captain Weber donated seventeen acres along the Rural Cemetery

Lane. Operated under the direction of a lay committee of the local St. Mary's Church, it was named San Joaquin Catholic Cemetery. Later, additional land was purchased by the Church, creating the present fifty-two-acre cemetery grounds facing Cemetery Lane and lying between Harding Way and the Rural Cemetery.

Consecration of this new parish cemetery took place on the afternoon of May, 1880, Archbishop Joseph S. Alemany of the Archdiocese of San Francisco officiating. With its opening, the long and arduous task of removing the remains of those interred in the old cemetery during the previous twenty-seven years was undertaken. This task was completed only in August of 1898.

Since 1946 the cemetery has been under the supervision of Mrs. Eleanor LeMieux and her late husband, T. W. LeMieux. In 1950 the Archdiocese of San Francisco assumed charge of the cemetery; in February, 1962, jurisdiction of it was transferred to the newly-created Diocese of Stockton. The Director of Cemeteries for the new diocese is the Reverend James E. Cain.

CAMANACHE DAM AREA CEMETERIES
Calaveras County, California

The following burials in the Camanche area were removed to other cemeteries. This particular area is the site of the new Camanche Dam and will soon be under water. It is located between Highway 88 and 12, about 25 miles east of Stockton and a very short distance from the San Joaquin-Calaveras County line. The San Joaquin Genealogical Society wrote to the East Bay Municipal Utility District, asking for permission to copy their records of all removals to San Joaquin County cemeteries. Mr. William J. Lange, Mokelumne Area Representative, sent us a complete record of all removals. It was decided to include all reinterments in this volume, regardless of date of death or counties to which the body was removed.

Our sincere thanks to Mr. Lange for his cooperation in giving us this complete information, with maps, descriptions, etc.
