FOREWORD

You have in your hand the 1943 Blue and White. It is hoped that as you glance through its pages it will serve as a pleasant reminder of your years at Stockton High School. Like many other things that have had to change during wartime, the Blue and White has altered — not as many pictures, not as many pages as we would like, not as many phases of student activity represented; but we still have the traditional yearbook, and we are extremely fortunate to be able to publish it during wartime.

WE DEDICATE THE 1943 BLUE AND WHITE TO THOSE STOCKTON HIGH TARZANS WHO TODAY ARE IN THE ARMED FORCES OF AMERICA, TO THOSE STUDENTS AND FACULTY WHO ARE SPENDING THEIR LIVES FEARLESSLY,
DANGEROUSLY, AND GLADLY THAT MEN
MAY BE FOREVER FREE.

Front Row: LaVerne Bravo, Editor of G. A. T.; Em Van Dyke, Vice-President; Flo Strand, Comm. of Records; Caryl Julius, Editor of Blue & White; Shirley Crow, President Girls' League.

The Student Council, the "Congress" of the school, is composed of the eleven active members who are chosen by the student body at the semi-annual elections. It was the members of this last Fall's Student Council who endeavored to engage primarily in war work. They were successful. Numerous drives were undertaken in the Fall, one of which was the all-important "Jeep A Week" campaign. Besides numerous activities connected with the war effort, recreation for the students was not overlooked by the members of the council in their efforts to have an outstanding semester. Dances for the whole Student body were sponsored and held in the Girls' Gymnasium during the noon hour, and much was done to stir up school spirit during the football season. Special acclaim should be given to student body president Bill Bianchi and to the rally committee he appointed, as the Fall rallies were the best in many semesters.

COUNCIL

J. C. Cave—Adviser; Bob Guernsey—Student Body Pres.; Margaret Shepherd—Vice-President; Carolyn Lease—Girls' League Pres.; Jim Broderic—Comm. of Welfare; Wilbur Lenz—Com. of Athletics; Carryl Jane Julius—Editor of Blue & White; Bill Shadley—Comm. of Organizations; Julia Grider—Comm of Records; Herb Vandervoort—Editor of G. A. T.; Coleen Young—Jr. Red Cross Chairman; Phyllis Stuckland—Custodian.

The Spring Student Council did this semester that which many a council and class officer has endeavored to do in the past. Beside the usual activities of approving bills, passing athletic awards, and helping with the war effort, the council presented a student activity in which the whole student body not only could but would take part. This was fulfilled when the carnival and dance, the big "Funfest" was given at the Civic Memorial Auditorium. Through the co-operation of the council and the different organizations on the campus, the "Funfest" was a huge success — not only on the financial side but on the attendance and interest shown by the students themselves. The profits of the carnival and dance were donated to the Red Cross. Bob Guernsey, our very able student body president, as well as the rest of the members of the council, deserves a great deal of credit for his efforts in making the "Funfest" a great success.

GIRLS' STUDENT CONTROL. Group 1. Row 1—B. Manthey, E. Van Dyke, M. Chiapale, M. Brooks, M. Dickinson, F. Marsh, J. Grischo. Row 2—S. Craw, M. Leffler, B. Harmon, B. Holmes, B. French, H. Boren, P. Strickland. Row 3—D. Toothacre, M. Willis, M. Marina, W. Foster, B. Kuechler, E. Stephens.

BOYS' STUDENT CONTROL. Row 1—D. Brown, B. Bianci, S. Sanderson, R. Erickson, L. Covell, R. Higby. Row 2—J. Hill, W. Harden, D. Doane, H. Klinger, H. Randolph. Row 3—I. Corren, R. Schneider, J. Minahen, M. Armolea, A. LeClert. Absent when picture was taken: J. LeRond, B. Whittington.

The Student Controls, one for the girls and one for the boys, have the job of keeping order on the campus and the surrounding grounds. Each control, consisting of twenty members, is composed of commercial, vocational, and academic students who are selected every semester. The girls' control is appointed by the First Vice President in consultation with the Dean of Girls, the boys' control, by the Commissioner of Welfare with the approval of the Dean of Boys. The purpose of the controls is "to maintain standards of conduct among students." The duties of the controls are to perform hall duty, to perform rally duty, and to keep order in the cafeteria. Each control meets once a week, and at these meetings offenders of school regulations are summoned to explain their side of the question and to be fairly tried by the Student Control. The decisions of the control are then sent to the Dean for their approval.

STUDENT CONTROL . . . FALL

STUDENT CONTROL . . . SPRING

The members of this year's Student Controls proved themselves very capable in attending to their job of keeping order on the campus. Conscientious, they treated each offender fairly, and taking their job seriously, they have been very effective without using gestapho tactics. The heads of the controls, Emma Jean Van Dyke, Bob Klinger, Margaret Shepherd, and Jim Broderick proved themselves to be very dependable and capable leaders. For the most part concerned mainly with the standards of conduct among the student body, the student controls were not without gayer moments as the bi-annual "Stu!" control parties were held at the end of each semester.

Back Row, left to right: M. Faight, C. Lease, J. Morrison, H. Trotter, L. Vassar, E. Moni; Second Row: D. Stabler, J. Arbicor, B. Moravik, C. Garibaldi, E. Prato; Front Row: M. Shepherd, J. Taylor, E. Sorenson, C. Evans, N. Ware; Absent: C. Bennetsen, S. Lewis, M. Karim.

The students who walked across the stage of the Civic Auditorium this February were completing a phase of life that cannot be recaptured in the years to come. "Cokes" at a nearby fountain, football games, pompoms, and hot dogs at Baxter Stadium, last minute cramming for exams—these lighter, carefree days are to put aside. The majority of the boys have joined or will be joining the armed forces; the girls will be going into defense plants and the armed services also. But, still, to tide them through some experiences that are bound to come, are the nostalgic memories of Peter Zeiter's jitter-bugging; Irving Corren's boogie-woogie; Mike Armolea's riotous sense of humor; and the extra special rallies that were given during Bill Bianchi's term as prexy. The activities of the class varied and were many. The highlights of the last semester were the Senior Prom and Senior Supper, both of which were a great success. Notable and popular students who graduated in February were Vice-President, Emma Jean Van Dyke; Athletes, Neal Holmes, John Leary, and Art Beyette; Girls' League Prexy, Shirley Crow; Activity-man, Richard Burns; Scholar, Arthur Adams; and Bandsman, Wallace Craycroft.

by Mr. Ellis.

WILBUR LENZ
JANET GALLAGHER
MARY VIRGINIA POND
KING WONG
HERB VANDERVOORT
CARYL JANE JULIUS
BILL SHADLEY
BEVERLY BARTH

Bubbling laughter, girls in lovely dresses — yes the seniors had their last fling at the prom. The graduates gayly recalled the time they dared to cut and face the Attendance Office, the frightening first day in Stockton High School, the pre-war trips on football specials, crowded Friday noon dances; but these activities and the wild dash to the dog house between classes, the aching all over from commando tactics, the tomato picking with the whole gang, and the worries about that Latin or Physics test are all over! Great things are expected from this class of June, 1943. With such shining lights as Janet Gallagher, Beverly Barth, and Mary Virginia Pond, all unsurpassed in scholarship; musicians, Clara Mae Gilky and Wayne Morrill; journalist, Herb Vandervoort; popular and earnest prexy, Bob Guernsey; all around sport, Tim Minahen; and Dorothy Toothacre, active in girls' sports make the June class an outstanding one. The class is dotted with colorful figures as Tony Esenaro, Barbara Jean Potter, Betty Hanson, Owen Chain, and many others who make the class an unforgettable one.

California Scholastic Federation

Membership in the California Scholarship Federation dropped to an all-time low this year, with an enrollment of only 45 members. However, this dip can be blamed on the sharp decrease in the enrollment of the school and is no reflection on the scholarship of the students.

In order to become a member of the society, a student must have grades that are equivalent to ten points. An "A" in a solid subject amounts to three points and one point is given for a "B".

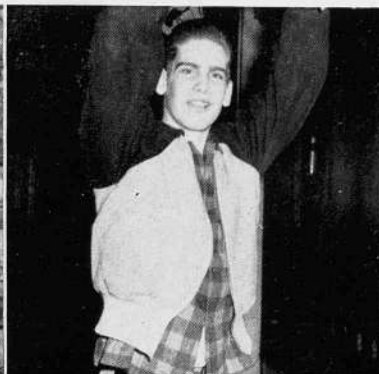

A student who remains in the society for six semesters, one of which must be in the senior year, receives a gold seal on his diploma, life membership in the C.S.F., and a gold scholarship pin. Richard Burns, Arthur Adams, Mabel Wong, and Helen Boren have already earned their points for these honors. As the Blue and White goes to press, it seems likely that Janet Gallagher, Mary Virginia Pond, and Beverley Barth will also be eligible.

Due to shortened schedules only one meeting of the society was held, at which officers for the Fall semester were elected as follows: President, Tom Shepherd; Vice-President, Wilbur Lenz; Secretary, Ruth Ziegler.

Troubadours

The Stockton High Troubadours, under the direction of Frank Thorton Smith, have had a very successful and active year. They have made twenty-one appearances, not including their school performances. This year's appearances included visits to the Motor Base, Masonic Temple, many hospitals, the Methodist Church, Hotel Stockton, Fox California Theatre, U. S. O., Stockton Air Field, and the Forresters Lodge. They also followed their annual custom of Christmas caroling during the holiday season.

You see them at football games. You see them in parades. Yes, for the last three years you have seen the Stockton High School High Steppers in their attractive blue and white uniforms going briskly through their snappy routines. The High Steppers were organized in 1940, and for three years Jeanette Otto, June Graduate, has been captain — which is a very fine record.

BAND

Due to transportation difficulties, this year's war time band has not had the opportunities to play at football games and contests as it has in past years, but the band nevertheless played at rallies, football games, and concerts, which it could attend, with better-than-ever quality. Under Conductor Harold Heisinger's able directions, the Band performed at June graduation, at special U.S.O. programs, and at the usual Spring Band and Orchestra Concert. Band Captain Lorin White was baritone soloist at the concert this year. Some of the smaller ensembles within the band such as the brass choir and the clarinet trio, has done considerable outside work.

ORCHESTRA

As always, the Spring concert was the culmination of a year's fine work for the orchestra under the leadership of Conductor Virginia Short. The soloist at the concert, oboe-player Claramae Gilkey, was one of three orchestra members to receive a four-year award for meritorious service to the orchestra, an unusual occurrence in a wartime year. Violinist Janice McCaffery and Clarinetist Wayne Morrill were the other members receiving these awards. The January commencement, several U.S.O. programs, a Christmas concert, and other outside performances were among the many activities of the orchestra this year. The string-quartet, composed of first-chair orchestra members and conducted by Miss Short, has continued its policy of fine playing.

GUARD AND TACKLE

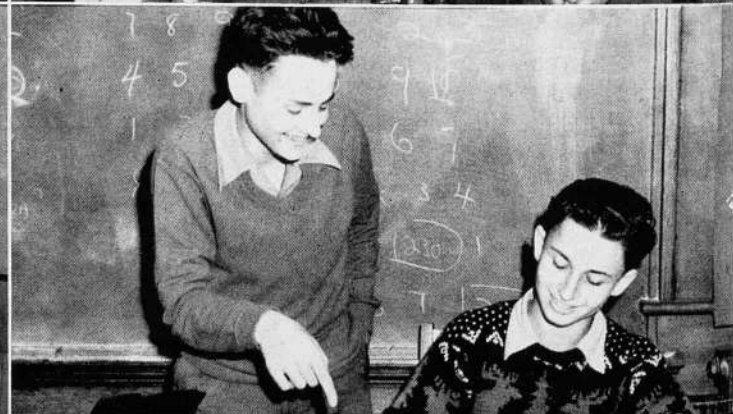

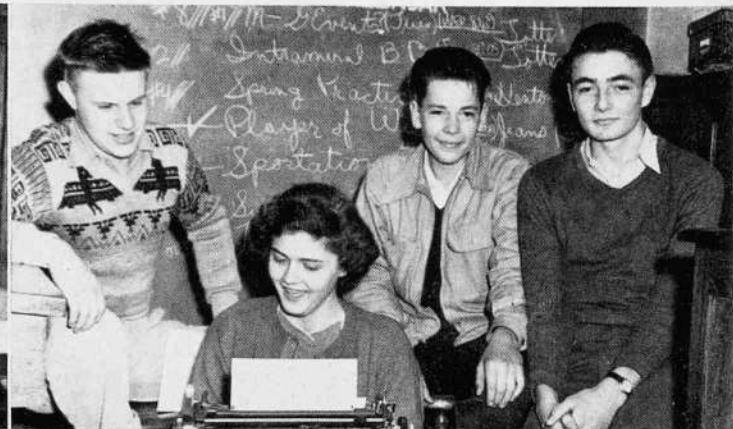

La Verne Bravo—Editor, Fall

Herb Vandervoort—Editor, Spring

"Patriotism" has been the slogan of the Guard and Tackle staff during this past year of continuous warfare. Besides putting out a paper, the Guard and Tackle staff has undertaken to assist in every patriotic activity of the school. This assistance has largely been in the form of sponsoring drives to obtain the materials we need to win a lasting victory. At the top of the list of drives, sponsored by the "Gat", was the Stamp and Bond Drive, commonly known as the "Jeep A Week Drive". A special edition of the Guard and Tackle was published for this drive and a program in the auditorium, participated in by soldiers from the Stockton Ordnance and Motor Base, preceded the start of the drive. The Key Drive, another successful drive sponsored by the paper, won nationwide recognition. Although not wholly sponsored by the "Gat", the Book Drive had the assistance of the Guard and Tackle in obtaining many books for the service men. But these patriotic drives are not all that has been accomplished by the Guard and Tackle. For the last four semesters, the "Gat" staffs have made exceptionally fine records, the National Scholastic Press Association having awarded the Guard and Tackle three first class awards during this period. The editors of the year, LaVerne Bravo and Herb Vandervoort, along with their staffs, deserve credit for their splendid work. Because of the shortage of rubber and gasoline, the conventions, which the staffs have always attended, have had to be cancelled from the "Gat's" schedule this past year. Mr. Adamson, adviser, and his co-workers have agreed that these trips can be passed up for the duration of the war.

BLUE AND WHITE

This year the annual staff has done several unusual things, but since the staff is "unusual" anyway, what else could be expected? The staff began the new year with a new adviser, new office, and eight new members. The first thing the brain-trusts of C20 did was to sponsor a "Miss Stockton High" contest. Not content with the confusion of the contest, the staff held a STUPENDOUS Blue and White Week. The usual scene in the B. & W. Penthouse is thus: "Artist" Morrill, throwing a tantrum over nothing; C. J. calmly peeling her inevitable orange; Frances Hammill, telling her moron jokes; Jean Arnold and Sheila Conroy, giving their minds a workout by playing tit-tat-toe; Bev. Beanland and Betty Poehlman, placidly screaming in one corner; Barbara Bayne, rushing around on important business; Jack Turpin, rushing out to avoid work; Dottie Knox, trying to listen to everybody at once; Bob Destrac writing witty slogans; LaVerne Vassar endlessly pounding the typewriter; and Maggie Shep drawing flags all over the place. Seriously though, the staff has worked! Special thanks should be given to J. W. Adamson, Adviser of both the paper and annual, for his untiring efforts in publishing this book.

Organizations

BLOCK "S"

The Block "S" is an honor society for those boys who are outstanding athletes on the Stockton High School campus. The purpose of this society is not only to raise the standards in athletic competitions, but to uphold the best standards in school life. The Block "S" fellows constitute a dependable group of students who are interested in school activities. Officers this year were as follows: Fall-President, Art Beyette; Vice-President, Bill Bianchi; Secretary, Bob Klinger. Spring officers are: President, Tim Minahen; Vice-President, Dick Doane; Secretary, Dick Erickson.

TRI-Y

Under the leadership of Em Van Dyke and Marla Dickinson, Tri-Y again had another very active year. A scholarship was given to an outstanding girl in the February class; cookies and cakes were sent to the Medical Corps at the Stockton Ordnance Motor Base. Other charities included baskets for needy families and donations to the children's home. More on the "fun" side were the "Goal Rush" dance Tri-Y gave after the Lodi game, the dinner-dance honoring the club's graduates. Left to right are B. Manthy, S. O. A.; M. Dickinson, president; M. Dinubilo, secretary; B. Potter, chaplain.

ROUND TABLE CLUB

Executive Committee—left to right—U. Ernst, B. Shadley, M. Pond, R. Ziegler, B. Jordan. Although the meetings were late in starting, the Round Table Club, supervised by Mr. Young, has had a very active year. Many well-known speakers were invited to attend the meetings in order that the members might become better informed on war conditions as well as civic developments. The club has aided the local rationing board as clerical workers. As a further service, rubber has been collected regularly at each of the semi-monthly meetings.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

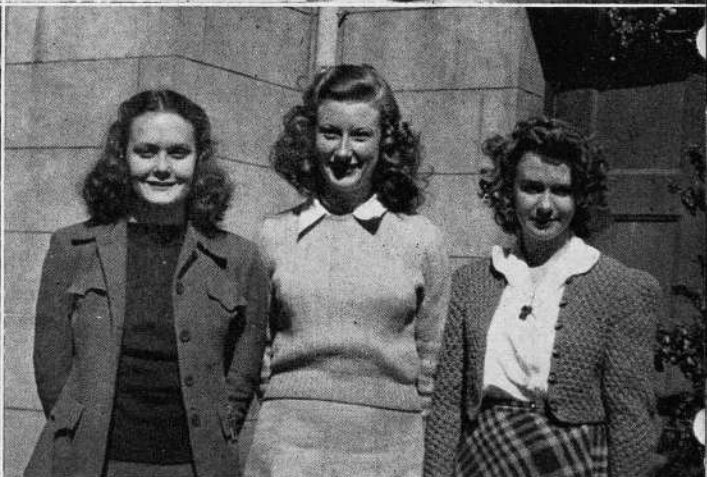

Left to right—Pat Peters, secretary, Spring; Julia Grider, secretary, Fall; Carolyn Lease, president, Spring; Shirley Craw, president, Fall; Doris Pettey, vice-president, Spring; B. J. Potter, vice-president Fall, abs. The Girls' League is an organization to which every girl in the school belongs, and is the only club where all the girls have an equal opportunity to participate. Due to war work on farms, which restricted all club meetings held during school hours, the Girls' League has been less active than in previous years. The organization, however, continued to be one of the outstanding groups school.

SOCIAL SERVICE

For junior and senior girls interested in charity work, the Social Service Club was organized about fifteen years ago. The main purpose of the club is to acquaint these girls with the field of social service work. This past year, Social Service sent a girl to the Campfire Girls' Camp, sent Christmas and Thanksgiving baskets to poor families, took part in programs at several different charity homes, aided in the Infantile Paralysis Drive, and as usual, aided by ushering at the graduation exercises. Presidents were: Helen Boren, Fall; and Mary Dagg, Spring.

CHINESE CLUB

Left to right: Herbert Wong, sergeant at arms; Jean Wong, secretary-treasurer; Rosie Lee, financial chairman; Hazel Wong, president; Helen Ng, vice-president and social chairman. This very active club, sponsored by Miss Geoghan, has been organized for the purpose of increasing the number of friendships and social contacts among the Chinese students. Since school time was not provided for the meetings this year, the group met at the Chinese center. Among the year's activities was a rousing initiation of the freshmen and the annual banquet and dance for the graduating seniors.

HI - Y

JUNIOR MUSIC

The Junior Music Club is for all who enjoy good music and for all who would like to know more about good music. Sponsored by Miss Short, monthly meetings are held. This past year the theme for several meetings has been music of America, and music which ranged from Negro spirituals to the greatest of our symphonies was studied and enjoyed. At one meeting a minstrel show was given by the members. Left to right: Beryl Fayette, president; Frances Vanderkooi, program chairman; Janice McCaffry, secretary; W. Morrill, vice-president, abs.

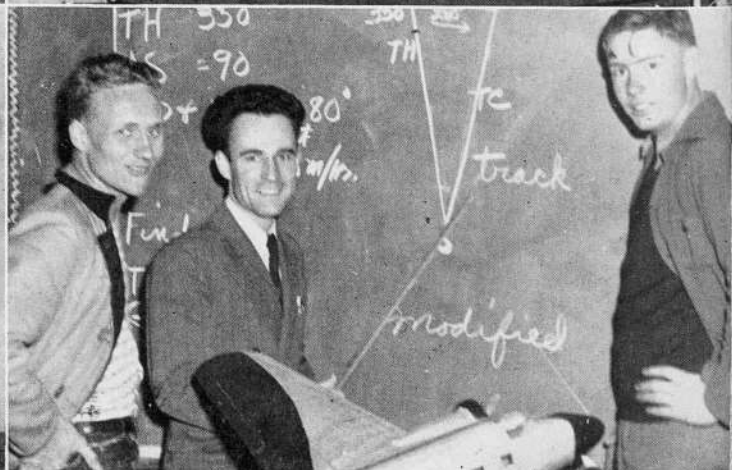

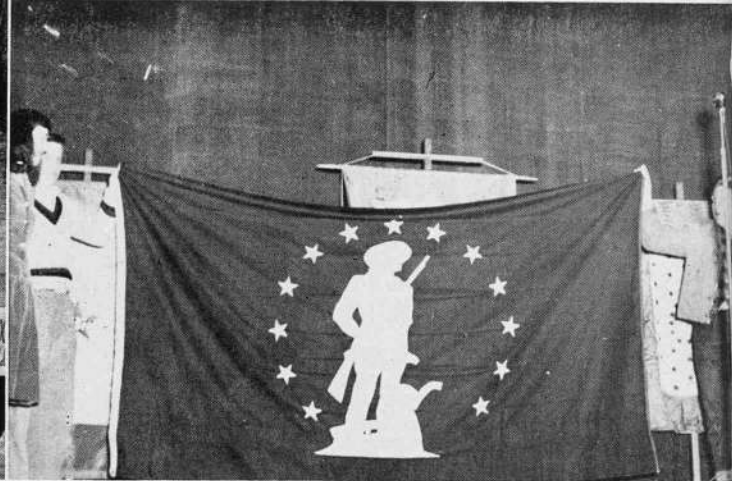

JEEP - A - WEEK

Through the efforts of the entire student body and personnel, Stockton High carried on an exceptionally successful "Jeep A Week" war bond and stamp drive starting in January. The goal was to purchase enough stamps and bonds to pay for a jeep a week, but the first week found us with six purchased. The goal that S.H.S. set for the end of the school year, 52 jeeps, was reached in less than four months. At the publication of this book 55 jeeps have been purchased. J. Mitchell Lewis, J. W. Adamson, faculty members, and Colonel Churchill of the Stockton Ordnance Base must be given special praise for their work in the campaign.

TREASURY FLAG

In February Stockton High School received the Treasury Flag for over ninety per cent participation of the students and faculty in the sale of bonds and stamps. The percentage for January was ninety-three per cent, for February ninety-one per cent, and for May ninety-one and five-tenths per cent. The percentage was kept up by selling stamps and bonds each Wednesday in the 10:55 classes. The Treasury Flag was presented at the last assembly in February. It is now displayed in the Main Hall, and we expect to keep it in the Main Hall, for we feel sure that the students will keep up the ninety per cent.

BOOK DRIVE

More important than ever before, the Red Cross work under the Junior Red Cross has greatly increased during the past school year. The war has made necessary various drives for soldiers, prisoners of war, and victims of circumstances. Drives for buttons, books, needles, and junk jewelry, have been among the activities of the Junior Red Cross. The organization also carried on its traditional Penny Day collection and helped with the March of Dimes collection. A great deal of credit for this very successful year should be given to Miss McInnes, adviser of the organization.

PRE - FLIGHT CLASS

In September, for the first time a class in pre-flight aviation was offered to the students of Stockton High. Extremely valuable to those students who plan to enter the air forces, it too interests many students, both boys and girls with an eye for future flying after the war. This pioneer class is taught by Mr. Elder, science teacher, who took an extensive course in aviation last summer for preparation. The division of the pre-flight course are radio, navigation, meteorology, metallurgy and aerodynamics.

Goes to War

KEY DRIVE

National acclaim and an unexpected total of sixty-thousand keys were the results of the ten-day key drive by Stockton High students in Fall, 1942. The "Guard and Tackle" sponsored drive was expected to net only ten thousand keys. A fine job of publicity was done by the members of the "Gat" staff. They gave prizes to the highest contributors, supplied collection barrels and the huge "measuring" key. Names of students who collected more than twenty-five keys were printed in the school paper. Richard Burns, chairman of the drive, was largely responsible for the great success.

OUT IN THE FIELDS

Tomatoes, dirt, slacks, and bandanas were the most familiar sights seen by students of Stockton High from mid-October to mid-November of 1942. Because of the shortage of labor and the great need for tomatoes by the armed forces, we turned out in hundreds to do this work. School was dismissed shortly after noon, and students boarded trucks to go to nearby farms. Fifteen ranches, or more, were served by 981 students. There were 25 supervisors, most of them members of our own faculty. Mr. Cave, dean of boys, handled most of the organizing and administrative duties involved.

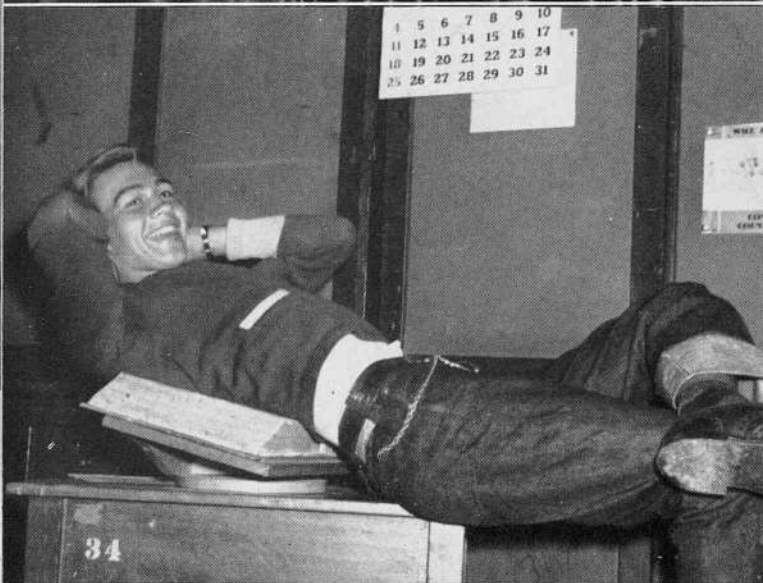

RED CROSS WORK SHOP

"Anything the Junior Red Cross asks us to do" sums up the duties of the Red Cross Workshop. The group doing the work is composed of sixteen girls under the direction of Miss Fowler, Home Economics teacher. The girls, all volunteers, work an hour a day and get classroom credit for their efforts. Some things that they have done were the making of bedroom slippers and utility bags for soldiers, card-table covers, preparing Christmas packages and boxes, decorating Christmas trees at the soldiers' hospital, and executing a successful button and needle drive at the school.

SERVICE FLAG

Three flags show the service that Stockton High boys have given their country. In the picture above the flag on the left shows the number of boys who fought in World War No. 1. This flag was the inspiration of Miss Minnie U. Howell, a member of the faculty at that time. The second flag is the new service flag presented by Miss Selna's senior adviser section. It is to be completed at the close of the war when final figures are available. Flag number three is also a replica of the First World War. During the last war it hung in the halls of Stockton High School with a blue star showing for each boy in the service.

Due to a late start in training because of Autumn harvesting and with only five varsity players returning, the Stockton High Tarzans got off to a poor start and consequently finished the season with only one win and several defeats. Modesto lost to the Tarzans by 19 to 7. Although the team as a whole did not fare so well, three of the first string players landed on one of the three All-Section Teams picked by the valley newspapers. These players all finished their high school football careers here this year. Art Beyette, ace right end, completed four years of football at Stockton High by being picked on the first All-Section Team, which is an honor bestowed on only the best valley pigskin players. Jack Bird, tough and consistent right guard, played one year "Bee" and two years of Varsity for the Tarzans. He topped his playing by playing on the second All-Section Team. Bill Bianchi, veteran, plunging back and another four-year man, was honored also by being named quarterback on the third team picked by the newspapers. Neil Holmes, center, although not placed on one of the All-Section Teams, finished an active four-season football career this year. Ray Padgett, starting his fourth year with the Tarzans, had his season interrupted when he enlisted in the Navy. Padgett's loss was a blow to the team as he had been an outstanding end. At the time of publication, plans for the 1943 season were still in doubt. Whether or not the Tarzans will compete against outside city teams next season has yet to be decided.

Possessing one of the smoothest quintets ever representing Stockton High, the Tarzans once again came through with a sensational season, winning four crowns. They won the Northern California, the Southern Division, the big four titles by beating Sacramento, and the city crown by taking a highly regarded Stephen Cruiser team. The quintet went through the interscholastic season without a defeat. McClatchy was the first opponent on the schedule, and McClatchy did not have enough all around playing to cope with the Tarzans. Next, was Madera High, and this game was one of the toughest on the whole schedule. A close victory resulted. Two games with Manteca were easily won by the reserves. Lodi was the first league opponent, and this was where the Lenz-men showed their real worth. The defeats which they administered to the Flames will "burn" in Lodi High's mind for a long, long time. Modesto was the next victim and was powerless against our well-knitted five. Right after the Modesto series, three first string players were lost by graduation. They were Bob Klinger, Dan Gower, and John Leary. However, the second players filled in well, and victory was achieved over Sacramento. Winning the city crown was probably their greatest victory. Jack Woods led the scoring with 74 points in eight games.

"B" BASKETBALL

After defeating the Lodi "B's" three straight games for the San Joaquin "B" basketball title, the Stockton High School lightweights lost a thrilling two out of three game series with the Modesto Panther "B's" for the Stanislaus title and a crack at the "Big Four" championship. Coming back after suffering a defeat in the first game by the score of 26 to 22, the Garrigan-ites overcame the Modesto squad 39 to 30 on the Modesto court. The final game, played here, found our "B's" on the short end of a 27 to 28 score. Earlier in the season, the lightweight Tarzans thrice doused the Lodi Flame "B's", but by very small margins. This, because of a schedule drawn up before practice begun, entitled our boys to the San Joaquin "B" title, and the right to meet the winner of the Modesto-Turlock series, which was Modesto of course. Transportation facilities lacking—due to gas rationing,—this schedule called for a round robin in Sacramento, and series by Stockton-Lodi, and Modesto-Turlock. The winner in each section met the winner in another section until one team finally emerged the winner of the "Big Four" championship, but two points kept them from a chance at the championship this year. Although only six league games were played due to the shortened schedule, the "B" team met St. Mary's varsity three times, Edison varsity twice, and Manteca twice. All of these quintets fell to the mighty mites.

SWIMMING

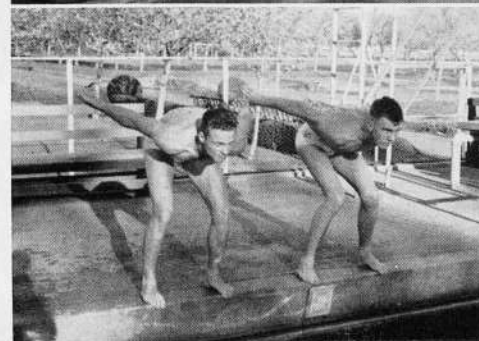

The Stockton High swimming team will have an even better season than last year's championship squad, according to Ralph Wright, able coach of the Tarzan mermen. Ten or eleven probable meets with other schools are scheduled. The main opponents will be Lodi, Sacramento, Grant Union, Berkeley, Palo Alto, and Sequoia. Although the Big Four has been abandoned, Coach Wright hopes to hold a sectional meet. New records are expected from Tom Sutton, Rex Young, and Bob Steel. The Tarzan Terrecades, staged by College of Pacific talent, have financed the team. Although the above was written before any events were contested, the coach, team, and fans think in terms of a successful season for the squad.

GOLF

With three holdovers from last year's team as a nucleus, the Stockton High Golfers, under the coaching of Fred Solomon, Sr., should have a banner year. The only player who is not returning from last year's team is Jack Temby, who was the number one man. Tom McKeegan, Bud Klein, and Fred Solomon, Jr., are the holdovers, and just who will emerge top man is difficult to say. The remaining spot will probably be filled in either by Wayne Hardin or Bill Gumpert. At the publication of this book everything points to a better season than last when they won four matches and lost five. They swept the Lodi series, lost all four to Modesto, and bowed to the Junior College swingers.
