Word was received this A.M. of death of Drury W. James, familiar pioneer whose early days were devoted to development of San Luis Obispo county. Mr. James was one of the original proprietors of famous hotel El Paso de Robles, and was one of the firm of Blackburn & James, the owners of the ranch at Paso Robles. During the time Mr. James was in Paso Robles he represented his district of county on Board of Supervisors for many years from 1868 - 1884. The flag at the court house floats at half-mast today in respect of his memory. (copied as typed from clipping) - Biography of D W James

Like many others of that time period, their family followed the harvest, eventually settling in the town of McFarland in the San Joaquin Valley.

He served in the US Navy from 1951-1954 spending time in Japan. He moved his family to Pismo Beach in January of 1954; was hired to work for the city of Pismo Beach Police Department by Chief Amos Dana. Until his retirement in 1982, he served under the direction of five police chiefs and he held the post four times himself. He started out as a patrolman in a six person department, working six days a week, nine hours a day. He said the chance to work with troubled youths was what he liked best about the job. " the rewarding part came years later, when they'd stop by to see me and say thanks," he once said. He stepped down from the department at the rank of Captain in 1982.

Following retirement, he took up a second career after attending gemology school in Santa Monica. For the next twenty years Ed became well known for his artistry and skill at jewelery design. His customers numbered in the hundreds and he took great delight in having inside knowledge of an impending engagement, a special anniversary present or even a "getting out of the doghouse" gift.

Most mornings began with his "coffee buddies", a group of retired business owners, former policemen and others who conducted important daily meetings at a local restaurant.

Death Calls A Pioneer - Stage driver John CORNWALL dies at the hospital

Old man succumbs to Paralysis after 30 years in the county. From Friday's Dailey

John CORNWALL, the old time stage driver died last night at the county hospital. He was 70 years old and had been an inmate of the hospital for nearly 11 years. Paralysis was the cause of death.

The deceased had lived in this county for considerable more than 30 years and was well known by the pioneers. He was born in Vermont, but came to California when a young man.

For a while he worked in the mines, but later became a driver on the stage between Pleyto and San Luis Obispo. At that time the old stage line ran from San Jose to San Diego. At other times CORNWALL drove on other lines.

After leaving the staging business, he had some money saved. He was out of work and became ill, and most of his funds disappeared. He has two sisters, who when last heard from, resided at Toronto.

Steward McLEOD of the county hospital, has written to relatives in the east to locate the sisters, if they are to be found.

Warren "Al" ANGLES, 55, of Paso Robles died at his home Monday, June 16, 1997, after a brief but courageously brave battle with colon cancer, leaving a lasting legacy of music, education and fitness training.

In accordance with his wishes, he will be cremated and no public service is planned.

Born July 20, 1941, in Los Angeles, Mr. ANGLES began his musical instruction early. His loving mother, Libby, arranged for him to be tutored on violin at age 8 by Vera Barstow, a well-known concert violinist. He made impressive progress and by his teens was a member of the prestigious Pasadena Symphony Orchestra. Besides Ms. Barstow, he was influenced by musical masters Fritz Kreisler and Felix Mendelssohn.

During his teens he became an avid bodybuilder and also boxed professionally. He pursued physical fitness throughout his life and founded a gym facility with weight lifting equipment in Paso Robles.

He met his lifetime partner, Sharon, when he was 16 years old, and they were married as teen-agers in 1960. One son, Jake, was born in 1962 and another, Ward, was born in 1965.

After finishing high school, Mr. ANGLES worked at a hamburger stand in San Gabriel owned by Bob and Virginia Kleckner. He worked during the day and attended college classes at night, and the Kleckners were extremely supportive of his educational ambitions, as were his wife's aunts, Alma and Alta FIELD and her mother, Martha. He earned a bachelors degree in English, with a minor in History and a teaching credential and began a long career in education at El Monte High School in 1965.

In 1969, he moved his family to Paso Robles and served in a variety of educational and administrative capabilities in the public school systems of Atascadero, Paso Robles and Shandon. He taught various subjects, including English and Social Studies, and he coached wrestling. In addition to a lifetime K-12 teaching credential, he earned a master's degree in education from Cal Poly, and administrative credential and a special education specialist/learning handicapped credential.

About 1965, Mr. ANGLES found a special learning and teaching environment at the Shandon Unified School District, where he taught music and special education among other subjects, until his retirement in the summer of 1996. He arranged musical recitals in the park in Shandon, where all students had the opportunity to perform if desired.

Known by many as the "Silver Fiddle" his musical influence continued beyond Shandon by way of special concerts which he held, initially at his ranch east of Paso Robles, and later, at Golden Oak Cafe in Paso Robles. No admission was ever charged at these concerts and anyone who attended was encouraged to perform. He also taught private music lessons to children and adults for several years.

He leaves behind his loving wife of 35 years, Sharon; son Jake of Paso Robles and wife Angela, son Ward of Arcata and wife Julie; his special friends Esther, Gary KLECKNER and Michael and Kay NICKLAS; brothers Darrel of Placerville and Robert of Rosemead; grandchildren, Zachary Shae and Warren Lee; nephews and nieces, Kimberly, Robert, Steven, Michael, Beth, and Lydia and numerous friends and supporters, including former students and colleagues.

His family requests that donations be sent to the "Al" ANGLES Memorial Scholarship c/o Sherri Franklin Shandon Unified School District PO Box 79, Shandon, CA 93461
